B. C. Halibut Banks Overfished, Cardin Tells the Commons

Fish Not Gaining as They Should, Minister States
When House Discusses Industry in Pacific Coast Waters; Appropriation for Marine Biological Board Debated.

Ottawa, June 13.—Discussion of fisheries appropriations by the House of Commons to-day brought a statement from Hon. P. J. A. Cardin, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, that it was a fact the halibut banks of Hecate Strait, off the coast of British Columbia, were being overfished, and that the halibut fisheries were not making noticeable progress toward rehabilitation.

His statement came as an agreement with a statement from Brig. Gen. A. D. McRae, Conservative, Vancouver North.

The Minister was asked by J. A. Fraser, Conservative, Cariboo, if it were true British Columbia raw sockeye salmon was prohibited from exportation. If this were true, he asked, was it also a fact that by shipping salmon to the United States, British Columbia fishermen could get better prices?

Mr. Cardin said the prohibition of raw sockeye salmon exports was a fact. He would prepare a statement on this matter later.

An appropriation of $348,835 for the marine biological board of Canada was under discussion when the committee rose and reported progress at 1 o'clock.

The appropriation was divided as follows: Purely scientific work, $150,775; practical and experimental work, $200,060; fish culture investigations, $47,150.

DEATH CALLS
MAJOR DUNDAS
Well-known Island Resident
Passes at Age of Seventy-six Years

The death occurred yesterday at St. Joseph's Hospital of Major Thomas George Dundas, late 52nd Regiment, aged seventy-six years. The late Major Dundas was born at Carron Hall, Stirlingshire, Scotland. For the last twenty years he had resided on Vancouver Island, having spent the last few years at Sooke where he had been a guest at the Belvedere Hotel.

The late Major Dundas married Mary, daughter of Duncan H. C. Davidson of Tullock, Scotland, who predeceased him in 1923.

He is survived by two sons, Thomas Archibald, an invalid living in Santa Barbara, and Ronald George, of Los Angeles, who married Olive Mary, second daughter of the late Mr. R. S. Day and Mrs. Day of Victoria.

The funeral will be private, the arrangements of which will be announced later. It is requested that no flowers be sent.

SALARY OF POLICE CHIEF TO BE $6,000

From July 1 until the end of 1929 his salary will be at the rate of $5,000 a year. Beginning January 1, 1930, he will get $6,000 for a year's work.

Co-operation Is Plan Of MacDonald and King
Ottawa, June 13.—Making friendly reference to the cordiality of the relations that existed between Right Hon. Stanley Baldwin while he was Prime Minister of Great Britain and Premier King and expressing hope these would continue during his own tenure of office, Right Hon. Ramsay MacDonald, Prime Minister of Great Britain, cabled the Canadian Prime Minister a message of greeting in which he said:

"As one of my first acts in taking up again the office of Prime Minister, I should like to say how much I am looking forward to co-operating with you. I feel sure we can do great things together in promoting the interests of the British Commonwealth and of the world as a whole and it will be my earnest hope to continue the happy relations which existed between you and my predecessor."

Premier King replied as follows:

"May I express my warmest appreciation of your message to-day. I, too, look forward with much pleasure to the renewal of our co-operation in Imperial and international matters of common interest. I very cordially share your view that the aims and ideals which we cherish in common may thereby be materially furthered."

DUTY ON YARNS IS SOUGHT IN FEDERAL HOUSE

Victoria Woolen Industry Needs Protection, Commons Is Told

Local Manager Refers to Difficulties; English Yarns Sold Cheaper Here

Ottawa, June 13.—A telegram was read in the House to-day from interests in the city of Victoria, B.C., by D. B. Plunkett, Conservative, Victoria, urging that the 12½ per cent duty on imported worsted yarns be reimposed. The local industry there was in jeopardy through the competition of imported yarns. He asked Hon. J. A. Robb, Minister of Finance, what assurance he could give these people.

The change in the tariff on woolen yarn had been made after a very careful survey of the entire industry, Mr. Robb replied.

The mill at Victoria had been started after the change in the duty had been made, he added.

Commenting upon Mr. Robb's statement, John Moore, manager of the B.C. Woolen Mills Limited, explained that it was only partly true. Financial arrangements for the Victoria plant had been completed and dismantling of machinery in the Old Country was well under way when the duty was removed, he said, and it was then too late to change the plans. Nearly one-half the machinery for the Victoria plant was at the dockyard awaiting shipment at the time.

Mr. Moore referred to the wage problem which faced the mill. Whereas expert spinners in the Old Country received only $6 a week, they received a minimum of $14 here. The industry really needed some protection, he concluded.

King's Oven Is Newbury Winner

Newbury, Eng., June 13 (Canadian Press Cable).—King's Oven, owned by D. M. Grant, won the Newbury Summer cup over the mile and a half course here to-day in a field of eleven.

Gypsy King, owned by Mrs. E. K. Hertz, was second, half a length behind the winner, and Lord Carnarvon's three-quarters of a length behind Gypsy King, was third.

The winner was a 5 to 1 favorite. Gypsy King was quoted at 100 to 7 against, while the betting was 6 to 1 against Mara.

LARGE STORE IN SEATTLE SOLD

Frederick and Nelson Business Taken Over By Marshall Field and Co.

Seattle, June 13.—Frederick & Nelson, one of the largest of Seattle's retail department stores, was sold to-day to Marshall Field & Company of Chicago. Announcement of the sale was made by D. E. Frederick, one of the founders of the store forty years ago, and John McKinley, first vice-president of Marshall Field & Company. Neither would discuss the terms of the sale.

Frederick & Nelson is recognized as one of the largest department stores on the Pacific Coast.

Frederick said he planned to retire. William H. St. Clair, at present vice-president of Frederick & Nelson, will become president and general manager.

Court Directs Former Police Board Member To Pay Counsel Bills

Vancouver, June 13.—A judgment has been handed by Mr. Justice W. A. MacDonald in the British Columbia Supreme Court, which holds Thomas William Fletcher, former Vancouver police commissioner, liable for bills of costs to McGee, McGee & Wilson and to T. G. McLean for services rendered as counsel and solicitor at last year's police inquiry.

Mr. Justice MacDonald has directed that the registrar pay the bills, which were presented at $9,895 by McGee, McGee & Wilson, and at $2,250 by McLean.

Mr. Fletcher is ordered to pay the costs of the proceedings.

BERRIES GOING EAST FRIDAY

Advance Shipment of Notable Pack Now Being Loaded

Inspectors to Demonstrate Correct Pack to Pickers

The first carload of Sanian strawberries will leave for the prairie market to-morrow morning, H. E. Tanner, manager of the Sanian Fruit Growers Association, this morning announced.

The car will be loaded jointly by the Sanian and Gordon Head Associations.

The pack this year is expected to be of notable quality. Weather conditions have been ideal for picking, and inspection of fruit for shipment is maintaining most stringent standards.

Large supplies of fruit are now being delivered for local consumption, and the demand has proved excellent.

Picking and packing demonstrations will be held to-morrow in Saanich and Gordon Head, with Assistant Provincial Horticulturist E. W. White and Government inspectors officiating.

In Saanich demonstrations will be given at 10 o'clock at the ranch of J. N. Wood, East Saanich Road, and at 11 o'clock at the property of T. A. Skidmore, Elk Lake, Gordon Head.

Demonstrations will be given in the afternoon.

New packing and freezing apparatus for handling berries installed by the B. Wilson Company Limited, will be tested to-morrow.

OKANAGAN GROWERS SHIPPING CHERRIES

Vernon, B.C., June 13.—Westbank claims it heads the list with the first shipment of cherries from the Okanagan Valley this year. The shipment was made on Tuesday by Brown and Clarke from the Knox Ranch.

The claim of the Georgia Construction was based on work in constructing a cut and fill at Mile 13.17, north Lillooet, in 1926. The contractors sought payment for extra costs incurred through the removal of the material by a circuitous route from the cut to the fill. On the other hand, the position taken by the P.G.E. directors was that a strict adherence to the wording of the contract barred the claim.

J. W. deB. Parrie, K.C., who had been counsel throughout for the Georgia Construction Company, appeared to the Supreme Court of Canada from the unanimous judgment of the British Columbia Court of Appeal, which reversed the original judgment of Chief Justice Morrison. The case was argued at Ottawa in May, when judgment was reserved.

W. B. Kinne of Idaho Escaped Injury, But One of Rescuers Shot in Leg

Orofino, Idaho, June 13.—W. B. Kinne, Lieutenant-Governor of Idaho, abducted by four automobile bandits yesterday morning and left tied to a tree on a mountain after his car had been wrecked in a wild dash about the countryside, is at home to-day, uninjured.

One of the two men who attempted to rescue him from the robbers is in a hospital with a bullet in his leg and a badly battered head and the other is leading a large posse of sheriff's officers, scout and citizens in a man-hunt.

The Lieutenant-Governor was attacked shortly after leaving Lewiston, Idaho, where he had stayed Tuesday night.

He returned home last night.

P.G.E. ORDERED TO PAY $60,000

Supreme Court of Canada Decides in Favor of Construction Company

Vancouver, June 13.—Restoring a judgment of Chief Justice Morrison, the Supreme Court of Canada has allowed the appeal of the Georgia Construction Company Limited, which thus recovers a judgment for approximately $60,000 against the Pacific Great Eastern Railway Company.

The claim of the Georgia Construction was based on work in constructing a cut and fill at Mile 13.17, north Lillooet, in 1926. The contractors sought payment for extra costs incurred through the removal of the material by a circuitous route from the cut to the fill. On the other hand, the position taken by the P.G.E. directors was that a strict adherence to the wording of the contract barred the claim.

J. W. deB. MACDONALD AND DAWES SUNDAY TO HAVE TALK

U.S. Ambassador and British Premier to Discuss Washington Conference

Great Questions of British-U.S. Co-operation and Disarmament Topics

London, June 13.—It was stated authoritatively to-day that Ambassador Charles G. Dawes would travel to Scotland on Sunday to meet Premier MacDonald at Forres, a little town seventeen miles from Lossiemouth, where the Premier is spending a short vacation.

The new United States Ambassador will be received by the King at Windsor Castle Saturday, where he will present his credentials.

At Lossiemouth Mr. MacDonald told an interviewer with regard to his prospective visit:

"We shall meet over the lunch-table and in the short space of three or four hours great questions of Anglo-American co-operation in the cause of disarmament and permanent peace will be opened."

It is said plans for the Premier's projected visit to Washington depend on the message brought him by Ambassador Dawes, who is assumed generally to have been authorized to convey a cordial invitation to Mr. MacDonald.

Mr. MacDonald, it is understood, will be guided by General Dawes as regards the programme for his visit and the scope of his discussions while in the United States will depend on the Ambassador's advice.

PATTULLO BRANDS ARGUMENT FALSE

Opponents to Vancouver Waterfront Have No Special Rights, He Says

Arguments presented to Hon. F. P. Burden, Minister of Lands, by A. K. Macfarlane and associates in his company, the Vancouver Terminal Limited, against the application of the Vancouver Park Board for the use of Spanish Banks for bathing purposes, were characterized to-day by T. D. Pattullo, former Minister of Lands, as false in so far as they refer to his actions at the time he was a member of the former Government.

Mr. Macfarlane and his associates are opposing the granting of the five miles of foreshore at Point Grey to the city of Vancouver on the grounds that it would obliterate five miles of the most accessible waterfront of Vancouver for deep sea traffic.

In their argument to the Minister of Lands they assert the foreshore was staked for industrial purposes in 1909 under the advice of W. J. Bowser, K.C. They claim that years ago plans were made at the suggestion of T. D. Pattullo, then Minister of Lands, for a round table conference at Victoria with representatives of the Alberta Wheat Pool, the C.N.R., the C.P.R. and the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway to discuss the technical details of deep sea terminals.

"My attention has been drawn to argument published in the press, ostensibly submitted by A. K. H. Macfarlane and associates, to the Minister of Lands, in respect of Spanish Banks foreshore," Mr. Pattullo said to-day.

"Reference therein is made to my own action, or lack of action, in respect of the application. Statements made are false."

"Whether Spanish Banks should be developed industrially is a matter for the city, in co-operation with the railways and the people generally, to consider."

"As far as Macfarlane is concerned, he has no more rights in the premises than anyone else. I consistently refused to entertain his application, and statements made, according to published reports concerning my action thereon, are not true."

INDIANS OF ALASKA TAKE 988 SEALS ON BIG HUNT

Juneau, Alaska, June 13.—The greatest seal take since 1911 was made this year by Indian hunters out of Sitka, a total of 988 skins being accounted for. The former record was 600 skins and the normal catch is about 400.

It is estimated at least 850,000 seals passed through the waters of the Gulf of Alaska during the spring. The Indians said the catch would have been greater had weather conditions been more favorable. Eleven hundred engaged in the hunt, which lasted six days.

SOCIALISM NOT WANTED, STATES LLOYD GEORGE

Liberals Will End MacDonald Government's Career If Liberalism Not Policy

London, June 12.—Liberalism and not Socialism must be the keynote of the new British Government's policy, or its career will come to a summary end, declared Right Hon. David Lloyd George, Liberal leader, in outlining here this afternoon the policy the Liberal Party will pursue during the coming session of Parliament.

Mr. Lloyd George, who holds the balance of power in the new House of Commons, called to meet June 23, told a meeting of the Liberal parliamentary group the country had given a Liberal, and not a Tory or Labor mandate.

"We await with interest the forthcoming declaration of ministerial policy," said Mr. Lloyd George, "but we must declare that as far as lies in our power, the mandate of the Government will end when it fails to pursue the Liberal policies."

"At the very hour the Ministry decides to become a Socialist administration its career will end. For it has no authority from the nation to embark upon Socialist experiments. It could only then be kept in power by Tory votes or Tory indulgence."

TWO VIOLENT QUAKES SHOWN

Observatory Records Severe Disturbances North and South of Japan

Two severe earthquakes were recorded overnight by the seismograph at Gonzales Heights Meteorological Observatory.

At 4:22 p.m. yesterday a quake of four hours' duration commenced, the reading indicating the centre to be 4,000 miles distant and probably north of Japan.

The second shock series was first recorded at 1:38 o'clock this morning, and also continued for four hours. The centre of this disturbance was estimated to be 5,500 miles away, probably in the vicinity of Formosa.

Manila, June 13.—An earthquake of unusual duration was felt, starting at 6:25 p.m. to-day in the central and southern Philippine Islands. No serious damage was reported.

BRITAIN MAY SEND DR. GILBERT MURRAY TO WASHINGTON
New York, June 13.—A dispatch to The New York World from Washington says:

"Dr. Gilbert Murray, noted professor of Oxford University, is being mentioned as a possible successor to Sir Esmé Howard as British Ambassador to the United States. Unofficial word to this effect has circulated in diplomatic circles on the heels of reports that the Labor Government is casting about for a new envoy to this country."

Old Orchard, Maine, June 13.—The French monoplane Yellow Bird, bound from Old Orchard, Maine, to Paris, was reported flying at an altitude of 2,000 feet and making 150 miles an hour in a radio message received at United States Coastguard Base 7 here from Lieut. L. M. Melka, pilot of the escort coastguard amphibian plane.

Melka also said local fog banks had been encountered, though not of extensive area.

GREAT CIRCLE ROUTE
Bar Harbor, Maine, June 13.—The Egg Rock Light Station, off shore from Bar Harbor, reported this afternoon that a plane had been heard at 11:30 a.m., traveling in an easterly direction. There was a heavy fog and the plane could not be seen. If the plane heard was the Yellow Bird, the Frenchmen were far north of the course they said they would follow. It would indicate according to navigators, that they were following the Great Circle course.

GREEN FLASH FACES
Old Orchard, Maine, June 13.—One of two transatlantic aeroplanes this morning got away to a good start for Paris, but the second, destined for Rome, crashed before it left the ground.

The Yellow Bird, big French monoplane, manned by a crew of three young Frenchmen, made a beautiful takeoff and sped away to be accompanied by a coastguard amphibian.

The Green Flash, United States plane, with a United States crew, nosed over on the beach and swerved into a ground loop about midway of its run. The ground loop turned its nose directly about. Lewis A. Yancey and Roger Q. Williams, aboard, were not injured.

RETURNS SWING IN FAVOR OF THE HERTZOG PARTY

Rural Areas in South Africa Support the Nationalist Government Party

Capetown, S.A., June 13 (Canadian Press Cable via Reuters).—It is now certain the Nationalist-Labor "Fact" Government will have a majority in the new House of Assembly as a result of the general election yesterday. Whether or not the Ministry of Premier J. B. Hertzog will have a working majority is still doubtful.

RURAL AREAS
Capetown, S.A., June 13 (Canadian Press Cable via Reuters).—Returns from the country districts now arriving show the rural areas running true to form in the election of yesterday by supporting the Nationalist Party. The number of Nationalist seats is now forty-three, while the South African Party is still out in front with fifty-six to its credit. The Cresswell Laborites, who support the Nationalist Government, have five seats and the other wing of the Labor Party has three. Of 148 seats, 107 have reported.

The Government secured both the north and south ridings of Bloemfontein and a clear sweep of the Orange Free State by the Nationalists and their Labor allies appears almost certain.

Bus Slips From Road; Passengers Escape Injury

Eight passengers in a big sightseeing bus escaped serious injury when the vehicle slipped from the new Benvenuto Road late yesterday afternoon and turned over on its side. The bus sustained practically no damage.
Soft dirt on the side of the pavement was blamed for the accident by the bus driver, who states he was forced to swerve to the right when a touring car passed going at a high rate of speed. The right wheels of the bus sank into the dirt, causing it to turn on its side. The passengers, who were on their way to view the beautiful Butchart Gardens were shaken up by the mishap but beyond a few bruises escaped injury.

U.S. Now Possesses Great Panda Skin

San Francisco, June 13.—Kermit Roosevelt, who arrived here yesterday on the liner President McKinley, is bound for New York by train to-day. In a handbag he insisted on carrying himself when he landed here was the skin of a giant panda, a rare beast which was the central object of the Roosevelt-Field Museum expedition, which set out from India last December. The panda is somewhat of an intermediate between a bear and a raccoon.
"The small panda is rather common," said Roosevelt, "but there is no other complete specimen of a giant panda in the world."

IN TRIBUTE TO BRITAIN'S WAR DEAD

THE FORD CAR FUEL SYSTEM

- A—Filler Cap.
- B—Filter spout screen filters gas and prevents splashing through filler opening.
- C—Gas gauge.
- D—Fuel line main shut off valve.
- E—Gas filter.
- F—Carburetor Connection.

Simple—Safe—and Dependable

THE Ford car fuel system is simple because it is direct. Gravity flow does away with forced feed. A short feed line with a minimum of elbows and connections is easy to service and eliminates approximately 100 parts required by the vacuum tank or fuel pump system.

The nine gallon tank is so placed that it is well protected from front or rear end collision. Any overflow runs off on the ground with no serious results, since the only point of possible spark contact is the rear end of the exhaust. Three screens instead of one, as in most fuel systems, prevent foreign matter reaching the tank. A solid steel dash separates the Ford gas tank from the engine.

The gas gauge on the dash of the Ford car is controlled by a simple float as shown in diagram, being more direct, simple and accurate than any other type. Another point of driving convenience made possible by the gravity flow system is the ease with which the tank may be filled, while the driver supervises the operation without moving from behind the wheel.

Reduce the Acid

In sick stomachs—instantly

Sick stomachs, sour stomachs, and indigestion usually mean excess acid. The stomach nerves are over-stimulated. Too much acid makes the stomach and intestines sour. The best remedy is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia, because one harmless, tasteless dose neutralizes many times its volume in acid. Since its invention, 50 years ago, it has remained the standard with physicians everywhere.
Take a spoonful in water and your unhappy condition will probably end in five minutes. Then you will always know what to do. Crude and harmful methods will never appeal to you. Go prove this for your own sake. It may save a great many disagreeable hours.
Be sure to get the genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. Each bottle contains full directions—any drugstore.

PENITENTIARY FUNDS VOTED

Canada's Prisons Conducted Better Than Those of Most Countries, Says Lapointe

Ottawa, June 13.—Canada's penitentiaries compared very favorably and were very much better than those in the majority of countries, Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, said when the Commons yesterday was discussing an item of the estimates providing $1,897,752 for the penitentiaries.

The practice of moving prisoners from one penitentiary to another to serve out their terms was opposed by Miss Agnes MacPhail, Progressive, Southeast Grey, Ont.

Miss MacPhail urged increased work with pay for prisoners and suggested a board of governors, composed of the warden, certain of the guards and the best behaved prisoners, elected by the prisoners themselves, to manage each penitentiary.

H. B. Adshead, Labor, Calgary East, spoke of the difficulties which a discharged prisoner had in securing work. Who had not taken a ship? he asked. He thought adjustments would assist the situation.

R.C.M.P. VOTE
The House voted $3,040,725 for the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. During the discussion J. S. Woodsworth, Labor, Winnipeg, brought up the subject of Communism in Canada. He said the Communists were a political party, but information regarding their activities was being withheld from members of the other political organizations. He claimed the Government had resorted to methods of sending spies to become members of the Communist Party in order to bring to disorders. This was a questionable practice, he said. The Communists were regarded by the Government as bogymen, to be trotted out to the reactionary element.

Mr. Lapointe pointed out the function of the Mounted Police was to enforce the Federal laws. If in the course of their activities they encountered situations contrary to the peace of the community it was their duty to report. He knew of no instance of a Communist having been unfairly treated. If such a case existed he would be glad to hear of it.

INSPECTORS FOR GRADING OF BEEF ARE TO BE NAMED

Ottawa, June 13.—The time for receiving applications for positions as inspectors for the beef grading system will expire to-day. It is anticipated the marking of beef will be started early in the fall.

Beef grading at first will apply only to beef slaughter in abattoirs under Government supervision. The top grade will have a broad red stripe in ink the length of the carcass, so that every person buying the beef can see it. The second best grade will have a blue stripe.

It is expected the markings will be extended later to beef killed under municipal inspection.

One of the difficulties confronting Canada's bacon business in Great Britain is that the supply is small and irregular. This was a statement made by Hon. W. B. Motherwell, Minister of Agriculture, in an interview yesterday.

If Canada exported more bacon, Mr. Motherwell believed the price would improve.

Regarding the proposal before the United States Congress to increase the import duty on live cattle, Mr. Motherwell pointed out Canada exported only fifteen per cent of the beef it raised.

NEW CAPITAL FOR NORTH RHODESIA

Livingstone, Northern Rhodesia.—By Mail.—Considerable interest has been aroused here by the announcement that the capital of Northern Rhodesia is to be moved from Livingstone. The new site, probably will be near Bulawayo, which is just off the railway north of the broad Kafue River, about eighty miles south of Broken Hill, near Lusaka.

Livingstone, so named after the missionary explorer David Livingstone—the present capital of Northern Rhodesia, is seven miles by railway from the Victoria Falls. It is near the north bank of the Zambezi River, and has been for a considerable time the seat of the administration of Northern Rhodesia. It has a white population of about 800. In certain quarters it has been held that Livingstone, being at the extreme southern end of Northern Rhodesia, was inconveniently situated as the capital of the territory.

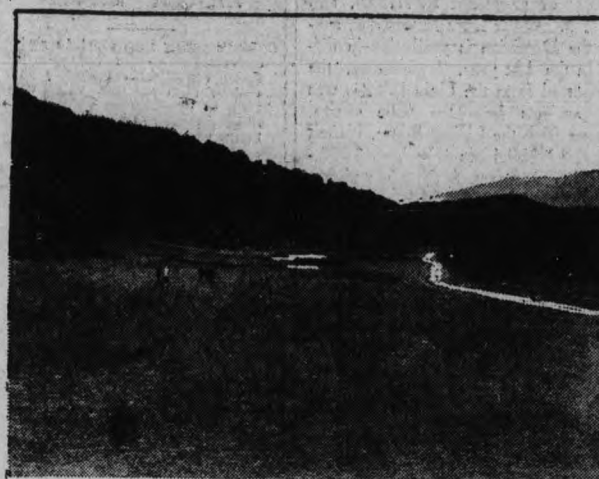

The move to the new site in the first administrative centre was at Kalomo, some seventy miles farther north. Hitherto, however, these objections have not been thought sufficient to outweigh the removal of the headquarters from Livingstone. But in the last two years mining development in the northern part of the territory has been rapid, and the need for a more centrally situated capital has been recognized. Chilanga is a wayside station some 4,000 feet above sea level, and there is room for the building of a town on virgin ground. Lusaka, the next station north of Chilanga, is a thriving farming centre with about 550 inhabitants. In the neighborhood gold and copper have been found.

Churchill Writes Of Election Influences

London, June 13.—Writing in John Bull, Right Hon. Winston Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer in the late Government, says the Conservatives lost the election for three reasons: First, the natural desire for a change after four and a half years of steady but unexciting administration; second, the prolonged campaign of disparagement leveled at the Baldwin Government by the powerful popular press, on whose support and encouragement the Conservatives had so often relied; and third, the cold-blooded use by Lloyd George of his large funds to sabotage as many Conservative seats as possible, irrespective of the immediate interests of the Liberal Party.

The international trade in leather has increased in value over previous years about $35,000,000.

SHORT BUT TRICKY

No. 4, Cavell—230 yards, Par 3.

This hole on the Jasper Park Lodge Golf Course, Jasper National Park, Alberta, over which the Canadian and Western Canada Amateur Championships will be played from Aug. 19-24 this summer, is more difficult than it seems. The green is well trapped and the long driver is sure to find trouble.

The fact that the Western Canada Amateur also takes place over this course at the same time as the Dominion event, assures all golfers, no matter how high their handicap, of lots of competitive play.

The photograph shows the hole from No. 1 (championship) tee, and the panel is the hole in detail, with yardages to scale below it.

REPORT SOON ON BIBLE IN SCHOOLS

Canadian Presbyterian Assembly Asks Sabbath School Board to Study Proposal

Ottawa, June 13.—Religious education in the public schools of the various provinces is to be investigated by the Sabbath School and Young People Societies' Board of the Presbyterian Church in Canada as a result of a decision reached at the concluding session of the General Assembly here yesterday.

The overture which prompted this decision declared there is "a widespread and an appalling ignorance" of the Bible among the young people attending the public schools of the various provinces. A survey of the whole situation is to be made and a move started toward the establishment of an adequate Dominion-wide system of religious education in the public schools.

The co-operation of other Protestant churches will be sought in carrying out this proposal.

The Assembly also decided to send four representatives to the first General Assembly of the reunited Presbyterian Church of Scotland, which will meet in October next. The delegation named includes Rev. Dr. D. G. McQueen of Edmonton.

The commissioners yesterday also concurred in a recommendation that the presbytery of Macleod, Alta., be reorganized.

It was agreed to confer upon missionaries in foreign countries authority to ordain native missionaries.

PREMIER SPEAKS
Premier King, presented to the commissioners as a "distinguished and loyal son of the Presbyterian Church in Canada," visited the assembly yesterday afternoon.

In a brief address the Prime Minister declared the one great reality was the fact of reality.

"Back of our statesmen to-day," he said, "transcending and more powerful than all other influences, is the church."

Mr. King viewed with regret advertisements which appeared outside churches in their efforts to compete with the movies.

NO BLAME FOR SHOOTING

Detroit, June 13.—Prosecutor James E. Chenot and Representative Robert J. Clancy last night absolved Jonah Cox, customs border patrol inspector, of all blame in connection with the fatal shooting here early Tuesday morning of Archibald Eughster, twenty-one, on the bank of the Detroit River. Chenot gave out a statement exonerating Cox after Frank Cooper, one of Eughster's companions at the time of the shooting, admitted that he, Eughster and others were running thirty-five cases of liquor across the Detroit River from Canada.

Vanderbilt Students Hear Thornton

Nashville, Tenn., June 13.—Sir Henry Thornton, yesterday attended the graduating exercises at Vanderbilt University, where in 1894, he was football coach.

"The safety of autocracy is ignorance, but the safety to democracy is education," Sir Henry said in an address to the students.

"Bases of life are not overturned by stubborn attacks, but they may be overturned by building and reasoning," Sir Henry said he believed the Monroe Doctrine had already outlived its usefulness and that a country which has acquired the wealth of the United States should accept the responsibility going with it.

FIVE FLIERS INJURED

Poughkeepsie, N.Y., June 13.—Five persons were injured, one probably fatally, when a passenger seaplane here late yesterday. All were taken to a hospital. Observers said the plane's motor seemed to fail as it was flying low.

The injured were Clifford McMillan, Mineola, the pilot; James Madison of Blackwell, N.Y.; Arthur Syran of Blackwell; Harold Gibbs, New York and a man identified only as Mr. Hess.

Aeroplane Puts Mail Aboard Ss. Leviathan

New York, June 13.—An aeroplane yesterday successfully carried mail to and from the United States liner Leviathan when the ship, bound for Cherbourg and Southampton, was sixty miles off the Ambrose Channel lightship.

Two planes took part in the experiment, one an amphibian equipped with radio and the other, piloted by Lieut.-Commander George S. Pond and L. Van Rawlings, had suspended from it a long cable with a steel ball at the end. This ball, when the mail was picked up, was caught in a triangular canvas net, which led it into a cup to which the mail sack was attached.

The sack was catapulted at the moment the ball went into the cup.

The amphibian, carrying in addition to the pilot, a representative of the United States liner and two radio operators, kept in communication with the ship and directed the operation.

PASSPORT FRAUDS ENDED

Havana, June 13.—What was described as the largest and most flourishing false passport mail order office operations in Cuba was raided yesterday by Cuban secret police and bogus men arrested. Most of the bogus papers were for entrance into the United States.

TWO POSTS AT SAANICH HIGH SCHOOL FILLED

School Board Selects A. E. Bailey and W. R. Jones For New School Staff

Board Will Ask Funds For Plans For New High School Building

Two appointments were last night made to the staff of the Saanich high school, now being organized to occupy part of Tolmie School next September. The Saanich School Board selected A. E. Bailey as specialist in English and sports. Mr. Bailey is now at Nanaimo. W. R. Jones, now at McKenzie Avenue School, will be transferred to the High School, to take charge of commercial studies.

A special instructor in French will probably be engaged, the board accepting the advice of Inspector Paterson to defer one appointment pending acceptance by a skilled female teacher now in France. Unless this lady is engaged the board was advised to leave instruction in French to the principal,

William Garner. Appointments as science and mathematics instructors were also deferred. Inspector Pateron being instructed to visit Vancouver to interview a number of male applicants and the Provincial Inspectors of the Department of Education.

NEW EQUIPMENT

The board decided to equip the new high school with cabinet desks made in New Westminster, of British Columbia materials. An initial order for 150 desks at $9.30 each was placed. Further equipment will be purchased after the entrance examinations show final requirements.

MONEY FOR PLANS

The Saanich School Board will ask the Municipal Council to provide $6,000 for immediate preparation of plans for the new high school building, to be submitted to the ratepayers at the next municipal elections. Trustee Brooks demurred, but was over-ruled in order that a clear-cut proposal may be voted on. Trustees objected to continuance of temporary arrangements longer than necessary.

VIOLINIST IS WELL RECEIVED

Recital at Empress Hotel By Francis Armstrong Draws Many

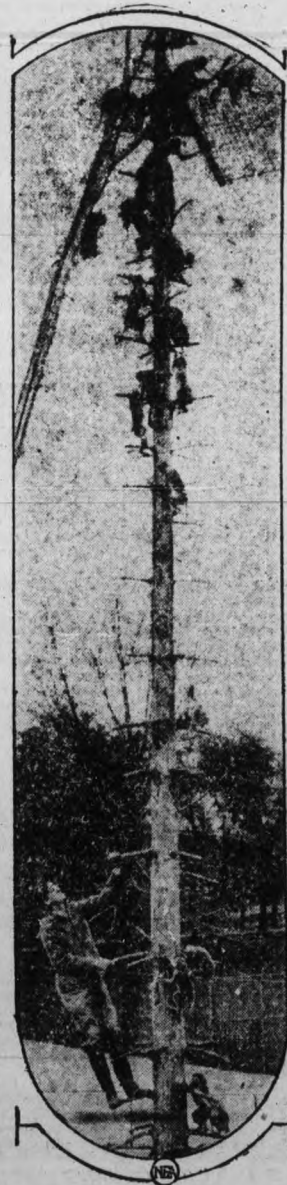

Francis Armstrong, violinist of Seattle, formerly of Victoria, appeared before an interested audience in the Empress Hotel last night when the Tuberculous Veterans of the Canadian Legion staged its second recital.

Mr. Armstrong was assisted by Ethel Hawthorne Ross, a gifted soprano, and Madame Bertha Poncy, pianist.

Brilliance of execution marked Mr. Armstrong's performance throughout, and in a wide range of numbers he displayed fine command with style and refinement and an assuring technique. Among the selections which drew spontaneous applause were Scott's "Lotus Land," Schubert's "The Bee," "Partita in E Major" (Bach-Kreisler), "Melodie" (Gluck) and "Malgueña" (Sarasate).

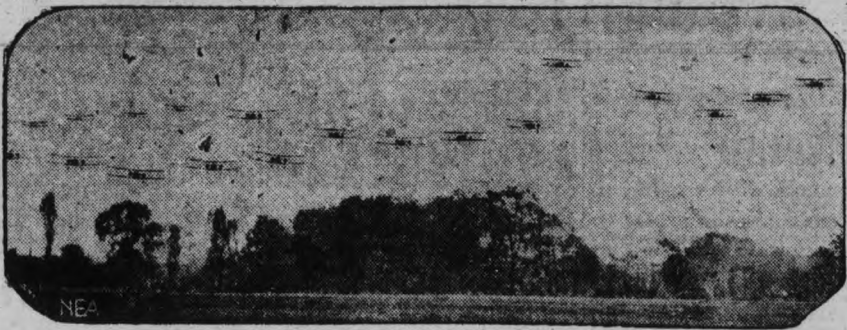

With a warmth of tone and emotional sympathy which charmed her audience, Mrs. Ross rendered such numbers as Debussy's "L'Enfant Prodigue" and Brahms "Mahnacht," in beautiful style.

Seventy-five rhesus monkeys recently were placed on the island for the summer.

ASSEMBLY PAYS A TRIBUTE TO CANADIAN POET

Memory of Bliss Carmen Is Honored By Canadian Daughters' League

A very enthusiastic meeting of Victoria Assembly No. 30, Canadian Daughters' League, was held in the Sons of Canada Hall on Tuesday evening, Mrs. R. A. Barr presiding. During the opening ceremony the presentation of a memorial to the passing of Canada's much loved poet, Bliss Carmen. She paid tribute to his ability as a writer and his intense love of his native land, as expressed in his many beautiful poems. The members stood in silent reverence to his memory.

Much important business was transacted and future plans discussed. It was suggested that a bowling club be formed and a committee composed of Mesdames Owens, Trace and Galbraith was appointed to obtain the necessary information. It was decided to discontinue the regular meetings during July and August.

Mrs. George Lillie will convene a picnic to be held in July, and Mrs. A. Campbell will arrange a social "get together" for the month of August.

Mrs. M. A. Ritchie, who as convener of a most important committee of the league, is a member of that body, gave a gratifying report of the sixth annual session of the grand council, held recently in Vancouver. Splendid growth had been made during the last year, and the outlook for the future was most promising, she said.

Several prominent speakers addressed the convention during the three-day session, and they were unanimous in their appreciation of the work already accomplished by the organization. It was the consensus of opinion of these speakers that Canada would achieve her destiny as a great nation, but in order that this might be accomplished her sons and daughters needed "a greater price of place and the consciousness of their own position." Conservation of her resources for her own people and a higher type of Dominion immigration policy were also considered necessary.

The next regular meeting of the assembly will be held on June 25, when the young people of the assembly, under the convener'ship of Miss L. Noble, will provide the programme.

BURDETT HOUSE SCENE OF GARDEN FETE YESTERDAY

Many Visitors Attend Annual Garden Party of Catholic Women's League

The sheltered old gardens of Burdett House, a former beauty spot of Victoria, were filled with a throng of visitors yesterday afternoon when the annual garden party was held. The gardens had been put in order by an energetic committee from the Knights of Columbus, under Mr. Blair Reid, Mr. O'Brien and Mr. Costello.

The usual built stalls were unnecessary for the display of tempting wares. The natural groves, formed by the fine old trees, lent themselves admirably for this purpose. League colors of blue and gold were everywhere in evidence. The tea room was particularly attractive with its combinations of blue and yellow iris, and the dainty tea cloths designed by Mrs. Blair Reid, who with Mrs. McManus, president, convoked the delightful afternoon.

A very pleasant surprise was given to Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon at their home on Rowland Avenue, on Tuesday evening when a number of friends called to extend their congratulations and good wishes on the occasion of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon, Mrs. Milligan, Mrs. Fred, Mrs. Baird, Mrs. Donaldson, Mrs. Hector, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Dumas, Mrs. Allan, Mrs. McCaskill, Mrs. F. Smart, Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Wallace, Mrs. Easton, Mrs. J. Gill, Mrs. T. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lefevre, Mr. and Mrs. S. Swetnam, Mrs. Moffatt, Mrs. Blythe, Mrs. Easton, Mrs. A. Wallace, Mrs. A. Speller, Mrs. E. Jamieson, Hazel Scott, Mrs. McKinnon, Vera Gill, Ethel Speller, and Messrs. John McKinnon, William McKinnon, Lewis Speller, Earl Speller and Maurice Speller. Among the gifts was a beautiful basket of flowers presented by Mrs. T. Miller and family, also flowers from Mrs. Bennett, Miss Seed, Mrs. McIntosh and others.

During the afternoon music was furnished by a fine phonograph, and the pupils of Mrs. Myers appeared in twelve dance numbers which were greatly appreciated, and warmly applauded.

A glass of boys from St. Louis College, under the direction of Brother English, gave an exhibition of bolas swinging, and Jack Hartree appeared in lightning bolas with much success. The committee was most appreciative of the Rockgas Company in installing a gas tank for the use of the kitchen, which will save service in lessening the labors of those engaged there.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE MUSIC

Festival Association Will Have Charge of Programme at Arena

The Musical Festival Association have again been requested to take charge of the music at the arena on Sunday afternoon, June 30. Fred Wadlington will conduct. William Gurney will act as accompanist and the church choir are asked to co-operate.

There are in Victoria many fine singers who are not members of choirs and the festival directors desire that as many of the best possible take part in the service of thanksgiving.

There will be community singing of many well-known hymns, and the choral programme will be "Gloria" by Mozart, "Then Round About The Stately Throne" Handel, and "Let Their Sacred Concerts All Unite" Sullivan. Music sheets will be provided, but anyone having copies of these are asked to bring them.

Rehearsals will be held at the High School, June 18 and June 23, at 8 o'clock.

Are You a Myope?

Myopia ("Short Sight") is civilization's tax on eyesight. Few children are myopic at birth. The tendency is inherited or acquired, and becomes manifest early or later in life. A myopic eye is really a sick eye, and should receive special care. To only measure the myopia and supply lenses may prove dangerous in many cases. This practice is known to be often a direct cause of increased myopia. If you are a myope, have us examine your ocular condition and advise you.

HELP CHILDREN CARRY OUT THEIR OWN LIFE PLANS

A parent is ever ambitious for her child. She plans his future almost from the day he is born. It is no "joke" to her to hear someone say derisively, "Well, I suppose some day the boy will be president." She feels that this isn't the least impossible. But her deepest ambition, those she considers most seriously, are her own unfulfilled or frustrated ones. The things she wanted to be, the plans she longed to fulfill, are those which the child must carry out for her.

Mother's legs may have been agile as a girl and she feels sure that had she had the proper training she might have been a famous dancer. No one ever believes she would ever have stopped short of being "famous." She determines, therefore, that small daughter shall have the training she missed. She will be famous through her.

But daughter's legs are not so agile. She is bored to tears with the grueling, limbering exercises and the three-times-a-week lessons. She wishes she could take drawing lessons instead, and she fills sheets of blank paper with the products of her pencil, and is dragged unwillingly to the stupid dancing class.

Rosalind's father wanted to be a doctor. Lacking the necessary education and having no son, he determines early in her life that Rosalind shall fulfill his ambition. So Rosalind takes all the pre-medical courses in the University. She slaves over biology and organic chemistry. She hates

LEAGUE POSITION WAS OFFERED TO MISS MACPHAIL

Commons Learns M.P. Declined Post Given Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith

Ottawa, June 13.—Hon. Peter Heenan, Minister of Labor, told the Commons last evening that Miss Agnes Macphail, Progressive member for Southeast Grey, Ont., had been offered the appointment of woman delegate representing Canada at the League of Nations, but had declined.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith was appointed and is now in Europe.

The appointment came up for discussion, while the estimates of the Labor Department were being considered.

Miss Macphail said that since all other appointments had been partisan she had been afraid to accept the offer of the League post.

APPROVAL VOICED

Mr. Heenan said the offer made to Miss Macphail was evidence the Government did endeavor to get away from partisanship. Mrs. Smith, said Mr. Heenan, had done more for the advancement of social legislation than any other woman in Canada, and as far as the Conservative allegation of her having lost the confidence of the people was concerned, only that day he had received a communication from the National Council of Women congratulating the Government on Mrs. Smith's appointment to the League of Nations post.

Hon. R. J. Manion, Conservative, Port William, said he wished to protest against Mrs. Smith having made partisan speeches when her expenses were being paid by the people of Canada.

Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, endorsed Dr. Manion's view. It was neither fair nor just that the League of Nations should be dragged into the domestic politics of Canada in this fashion, he said.

SPEAKS FOR ALL

Miss Macphail declared the person appointed to go to Geneva represented the whole of the people of Canada, and if it was Government money that had helped Mrs. Smith to traverse Canada on the way to Geneva she had no right to make political speeches. She thought the women of Canada resented all appointments to the League of Nations being strictly partisan.

HAS RIGHTS

Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Minister of Justice, suggested Mrs. Smith's appointment could hardly be expected to cause her to forfeit her rights to her own opinions.

ESQUIMALT SCOUTS OPEN NEW HOME

A large gathering was present yesterday afternoon at the opening of the new Scout Hall, which has been erected in the St. Paul's Garrison Church grounds, Esquimalt, to house the local Scouts and Cubs.

The opening ceremony was performed by Attorney-General Pooley, who heartily congratulated the company on being the first on Vancouver Island to have built their own home.

The building consists of a large hall and a smaller one to accommodate equipment, and is very substantially built and eminently suitable for the purpose intended. Great credit is due to the scoutmaster, Major Wise, and assistant scoutmaster, M. Langdon for the energy which they expended on the project. The interest displayed by many friends of the movement and the actual manual labor contributed in addition to financial help have been most encouraging.

The church and rectory grounds were gallily decorated with flags and bunting and presented a lively appearance. Tea was served by the ladies of the Scout Auxiliary, Mesdames Chandler, Fraser, Phillips and Adams being in charge. Mrs. Sutherland Browne and Mrs. Stewart received the many guests.

The Provincial Scout Commissioner, H. T. Ravenhill, was present, also Major Hartley, assistant district commissioner; Miss Hilliers, district cub commissioner, and Mrs. Phipps, Akela of St. Barnabas Pack.

Mrs. R. H. Pooley, Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips and Rev. P. C. Chapman were also among the guests.

A ready sale was found for the very attractive wares displayed at the stalls. Needlework was offered by Mrs. Acreman and Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Barclay and Mrs. Crestro had a well filled stall of home cooking. Tempting candies were available from Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Ricketts, and ice cream was vended by Mrs. Dalloway and Mrs. Langdon.

Acting Cubmaster M. Higgins and Assistant Cubmaster M. Phillips were responsible for an attractive fish pond.

The Scouts and Cubs took charge of the side shows and games of skill, which included coconut shies, Aunt Sally, shooting galleries, etc. Mrs. Cave was general convener.

The rose bowl competition was won by Mrs. Wilkinson. Mrs. Brooker secured the cake and Mrs. Fraser the sets of mats. The box of candy was won by Mrs. L. K. Moon.

The affair will add a substantial sum to the building fund.

them all and says sadly, "All my life my father has told me how he longed for me to be a doctor. I can't bear to tell him how I detest this stuff, because he would be so heart-broken."

Instead of applauding the child's choice of a hobby or life interest or vocation or an art, the parent looks backward stubbornly and insists that he continue to hew at the path which so appealed to the parent.

Everywhere in every home, mothers are scolding small victims who are struggling to be relieved of the burden of the parent's unrealized ambitions. "I don't want to take piano lessons. I want to play the saxophone. I hate the piano," says Burton. And mother, remembering her girlhood desire to play the piano and the many payments made on the shiny instrument in the living-room that should make this ambition easy of realization, stands fuming over Burton, sure that if she persists he will some day find joy in practicing.

Clay may be molded (we are always dubious of these pet metaphors as applied to humans), but an adult is possessed of a resistance found in no type of clay. Pressed into a mold against his own wishes results in making an unhappy adult of him.

Reconcile yourself to the loss of your early plans. Perhaps it was your parent's lack of co-operation which ruined them. Get the opposite viewpoint now that you are a parent, and co-operate to help the child achieve his own ambitions.

most painstaking cooking and serving can't make them attractive.

On the other hand, careless cooking will ruin the finest prune on the market.

As with all other dried fruits, prunes must be thoroughly scrubbed and washed through several water before using in any way. After thorough cleaning, let them stand in cold water to completely cover for five or six hours. Then simmer just below the boiling point for six or eight hours, keeping plenty of water over them. This way of cooking insures plump, juicy fruit that is tender but not mushy. If sugar is wanted, it should be added sparingly after the prunes are removed from the fire. Let them stand at least twelve hours before serving.

Unless prunes are wanted for a salad, the method of cooking just described is usually used, no matter how the fruit may finally be served.

MOTHERS AND THEIR CHILDREN

DRESSING AID

One mother says: My small daughters are quite expert at dressing themselves, but they used to be unable to tell the back of their bloomers from the front and even when I did show them, which was often, by the time they had returned to their room, they usually had them so turned around that they were all mixed up again. So I devoted a few hours time to working a short row of feather stitching in a bright embroidery floss, which would not fade, on the front band of the bloomers. This has now proved a great time-saver and now the little girls can dress themselves without any assistance from mother.

FRIENDLY HELP APPEAL

An appeal is made by the Friendly Help Society for a spinal carriage for a boy of seventeen who will have to spend the next six months on his back. If any Victorian having such an article will donate or lend it, he is asked to communicate with Miss Lawson, Market Building.

Silver Tea—The Centennial Ladies Aid will hold a silver tea to-morrow afternoon in the Sunday school room of the church, from 3 to 5 o'clock. A good musical programme has been arranged and a number of Mrs. Wilfrid Ord's pupils will assist.

"Poor Prune" Is Rich in Vitamins

By SISTER MARY

This between season makes it rather difficult for the woman who must practice strict economy when she goes to market. Fruits are high-priced, of limited variety and often of inferior quality.

However, if she will turn to the dried fruits she will find a real boon in prunes. From breakfast to dinner there is a place for them in iron content and if for no other reason than this are worth a place in every menu. They rank high in the spring diet.

In buying prunes it pays to choose a good grade. The cheapest grades are often little but skin and stone and the most painstaking cooking and serving can't make them attractive.

What! no breakfast!

Really, old top, this is distressing—and so unnecessary. You ought to know better. It isn't that the fast workers—in business or at play—won't admit that the pace has got 'em and turn down a perfectly good breakfast. Fact is, this new stunt of a refreshing morning dental pick-me-up has just put the no-breakfast complex out of our systems. You'll enjoy your morning toast and coffee after a refreshing brush with

SPEARMINT TOOTH PASTE

No OTHER DENTIFRICE so entirely deserves your preference. It is compounded with scientific accuracy. It cleans the teeth thoroughly without the destructive action of abrasives. You'll enjoy the cooling, antiseptic spearmint flavor. Tests show 92 3/10% of people do.

Spearmint Tooth Paste is the most economical dentifrice. Pure alcohol takes the place of useless water in the formula—giving this dentifrice an important stimulating and antiseptic character.

Spearmint Tooth Paste lasts four times as long as any other. One-quarter inch, laid across the brush, is sufficient for a thorough cleansing. Use Spearmint Tooth Paste and you will save three-fourths of the money you now spend for dentifrices.

Attorney-General Performs Ceremony at Esquimalt Before Civic Gathering

New Building Indication of Municipality's Expansion, Says Mayor Anscomb

Before a representative assembly of Victoria, Saanich and Esquimalt civic bodies, Hon. R. H. Pooley, Attorney-General and member for Esquimalt, laid the corner stone for the new Esquimalt Municipal Hall yesterday afternoon.

"The way in which the affairs of Esquimalt have been conducted since the incorporation of the municipality seventeen years ago, has been a credit to this district, and I only hope that they will be carried on as efficiently in this new building," said Mr. Pooley before performing the ceremony.

During his speech before laying the stone, Mr. Pooley reminded his hearers that Esquimalt was a municipality of long standing, having been founded by the Admiralty as a Pacific Coast naval station some time before Victoria came into existence. CONGRATULATED BY MAYOR Mayor Herbert Anscomb, who, along with Aldermen James Adam, W. H. Cullin, W. T. Straith, John Worthington and Police Commissioner William White, represented the city of Victoria at the ceremony, congratulated the municipality on its progressive spirit. The erection of the new hall was evidence of the development which had been going on in Esquimalt, he noted. The mayor also spoke of the place held by the municipality in the minds of men who followed the sea. Before concluding, he stated that he was looking forward to the time when it would be amalgamated with other municipalities and become an integral part of Greater Victoria.

EXPRESSES APPRECIATION James Elrick, reeve of Esquimalt, expressed his gratitude at the interest taken by the different civic bodies in the ceremony. He was deeply appreciative of their courtesy in sending delegates, he said.

The new hall, the reeve continued, should have been built some time ago, as the old one was a disgrace to the municipality. However, he concluded, the new building would soon be erected and Esquimalt would have a civic centre worthy of pride.

PRESENTS TROVE On behalf of Esquimalt, Reeve Elrick presented Mr. Pooley with a silver trowel to commemorate his act in laying the corner stone.

Mr. Pooley then spread the mortar for the stone, which was lowered into place by Ralph Berrill, A.R.I.B.A., the architect for the hall; E. J. Hunter, the contractor, and H. V. Jones.

Moose Lodge To-day A Business Affair

Modern Fraternalist Cold to "Social Evenings"; Moose Head Gives Reason

Old-time Lodge Meeting Relegated to the Past; New Order Reigns

Leaders in fraternal work are observing that a new era is at hand wherein the old-time secret society that selfishly and solely considered only the welfare of its own members no longer suffices. Modern fraternities are becoming business propositions incorporated with which is a philanthropic movement. One of the chief authorities for this statement is James J. Davis, director general of the Loyal Order of Moose, and United States Secretary of Labor.

"We are learning," says Mr. Davis, "that our men and women in the Moose are no longer satisfied with the old-time idea of the lodge room as a place for social meetings. There are so many other forms of entertainment and interest in this modern age that they do not care for the old-time gatherings, and it becomes more difficult to get them out to lodge meetings."

"True, they are willing to become members of our fraternity if that fraternity has some definite work to which it is devoted. We find that men will join the Moose because it gives them protection for themselves and families through the means of sick and death benefits, and because they are assured that, in case of their own premature death, their children will be provided for. The modern City of Mooseheart, at Mooseheart, Illinois, or in case of misfortune in their old age, they themselves will find a home in old age refuge for the elderly and infirm at Moosehaven, Florida.

"Yet since few of us ever really expect to die early or to become dependent in old age, our members like to feel instead that by joining the Moose they become philanthropists, that our endeavor to care for dependent children is a worth-while effort toward which they are glad to contribute in the way of yearly dues to the order.

"The signs of the times," Mr. Davis continues, "indicate that the ideal fraternity of the future will be a strictly business proposition. Its members will be ready to serve with monetary funds or what time they can spare. The ideal of brotherhood will have a central office with paid officers to take care of the routine. At stated intervals, really worth-while entertainment features will be staged that will interest all. The old-time poker parties will be a thing of the past. Only a few will have time for that, and the majority don't want it. The future fraternity will be conducted along strictly business lines."

Most far-seeing fraternalists agree with Mr. Davis. In these modern days the radio and the automobile are drawing the cities and towns closer together, they say, and no longer do former distances exist between the isolated hamlets and the great cities. The man or woman in the small town is as up-and-coming as his neighbor in the city. The ancient and social affairs of the lodge-room do not satisfy him. He seeks other forms of entertainment, and if in no other way, he finds them in the radio with its wealth of programmes and in the movies that bring the ends of the earth before his eyes.

"We have a membership that runs far into the hundreds," says the presiding officer of one great city lodge. "They all can be considered enthusiastic and sincere, for they pay their dues regularly and whenever we need extra funds for some noteworthy cause they are quick to respond. But we rarely see them in the lodge-room after the initiation ceremony. Out of the thousands of our membership list if we succeed in getting 800 out to a lodge meeting we do well. Those regular attendants are good people, of course. But the ones who really make our lodge what it is rarely attend a lodge meeting. They are in the background, ready to help financially. They are in accord with most matters the officers suggest. But the only active part they take in the work is to write out their checks."

Consequently, Mr. Davis asserts, the fraternal lodge of the not far distant future will be a consolidation of groups of small lodges that are now more or less desultory, with a central office where paid officials carry out the routine. The old-time lodge-room with

All Saanich Eighth Grade Writes Tests

All Saanich pupils eligible to write high school entrance examinations, will be expected to sit at the annual tests, the Saanich School Board last night ruled. Municipal Inspector J. M. Paterson warned the board to expect a heavy percentage of failures, because of numerous transfers into grade eight recently made. He reported instances observed where teachers have neglected to give special attention and encouragement to newcomers.

Personally shouldering responsibility for mid-term promotions, Inspector Paterson said "teachers who ignored newcomers will certainly hear of it. You gentlemen will be given full particulars."

Trustees insisted upon all writing the tests, to uncover weak spots in the staff in need of strengthening. Pupils prevented by infectious diseases from writing examinations will be given opportunity to write the tests later.

Phil Perkins, Defending Champion, Beaten In British Golf

Young Scot Pulls Big Upset By His Single Hole Win

Champion, After Being Two Down at Turn, Attempts Comeback But Loses Out on Home Hole to Andrew McNair; Johnny Dawson, Chicago Star, Turns in Victory Over Edward Kyle, Scottish Player, 5 and 4; Joshua Crane, Veteran U.S. Amateur, Loses to Bobby Baugh, 3 and 2; McNair May Meet Dawson To-morrow.

Sandwich, Eng., June 13—A new king is to be crowned in British amateur golf, for Phil Perkins, defending champion, was eliminated to-day. The present ruler bowed by a single hole to Andrew McNair, Glaswegian, after having advanced through three rounds towards another title.

Perkins came to grief on the first nine and was two down at the turn. McNair won another hole before Perkins steadied for the finish. When Perkins began to send sizzling second shots to the green on the homeward nine there was a slight indication that the youngster might crack under the strains. Perkins, however, won his last hole at the fourteenth. The fifteenth was halved with two birdie fours. Dormie at the home hole, McNair was shaky with his drive and took three to reach the green but Perkins did to win the hole to prolong the match. He had a six-foot putt to keep the game alive but missed and lost.

TILICUMS AND BAYS WINNERS

Defeat T. and V's and Five C's By Narrow Margins of Eleven Runs

Tillicums, champions of the Victoria and District Wednesday Cricket League, and the Hudson's Bay both won their matches yesterday by the slim margins of eleven runs. The former accounted for the T. and V. eleven at Beacon Hill, while the Bays defeated the Five C's at West Point.

After losing seven wickets for 58 the clubmen finally succeeded in scoring 90 runs to turn back the T. and V's. Rende and Parke clicked off the necessary runs for the winners.

In an exciting finish the Hudson's Bay just managed to scrape through with a victory over the Five C's. The Bays scored 90 runs to the C's 79.

In a friendly match Brentwood College defeated University School, at Mount Tolmie yesterday afternoon, by 115 runs. Robertson scored a 91 for Brentwood. The final score was 145 to 30.

Clyde Van Dusen Heavy Favorite To Capture Derby

Chicago, June 13—Withdrawal of Blue Larkspur and the prospects for a muddy track have made Clyde Van Dusen a big favorite to capture the $50,000 added American Derby at Washington Park Saturday.

The Kentucky Derby winner has been working out smoothly on the track and his only rivals are believed to be Jack Higg, African, Windy City and Karl Eitel.

EAGLES WIN TO TIGHTEN UP LEAGUE

Defeat Tillicums 9-6 Behind Steady Pitching of Young Bill Holness

Sidney Now Leading Senior Ball League; Three Teams Tied For Third Place

Playing good ball behind the steady pitching of young Bill Holness the Eagles threw a wrench into the pennant aspirations of the Tillicums by handing them a 9-6 defeat at the Royal Athletic Park last night in a Senior Amateur League ball game. By losing the clubmen relinquished the league leadership, for the first time this season, to Sidney.

By defeating the Tillicums the Eagles tightened up the race for the league championship. Sidney are in first place, one game ahead of the Tillicums, while the Eagles, Sons of Canada and Jokers are all tied for third place. Now that the Eagles and Sons have hit their stride it looks like a merry race will take place before the home are decided.

Holness was nipped for eight hits, but he kept them fairly well scattered, while he struck out four. Eric Whitehead, the Tillicums' southpaw twirler, started in the box but there he was chased to the showers in the fifth inning in favor of Cann. The Eagles nipped Cann for five hits during his four innings on the mound.

EAGLES TAKE LEAD
The Eagles got away to a two-run lead in the first inning when Whitehead was inclined to be wild and a pair of walks and a single drove home two runners. The Tillicums squeezed home one run in the second, while the Eagles boosted their total by one in the third. In the fifth the clubmen forged farther ahead when Steve Dunc's three-base clout drove in one run, while he scored himself on a sacrifice fly. Dunc was forced to leave the game at this stage injuring his ankle when he caught his toe on the plate.

The Eagles scored another run in the eighth. In the eighth the Tillicums threatened by scoring three runs, two of them coming on an error by Beck at second base, with two men away. The Eagles evened up in their half of the inning by scoring a like number. The Tillicums added one more run in the ninth.

One of the bright lights of the game was Dunc's one-handed spear of Tommy Green's line drive in the fifth inning.

Cann and Dunc led the sluggers each with two hits out of as many trips to the plate.

Ball Player To Receive Degree

Cincinnati, June 13—Ethan Allen, Cincinnati National League outfielder, will receive a Bachelor of Arts degree in physical education at the University of Cincinnati commencement exercises here Saturday. It took Allen seven years to earn his degree because he was absent from classes while playing with the Reds. He is twenty-five years of age.

SALO WINNER OF STIFF LAP

Flying Cop Cuts Nearly Twenty Minutes From Gavuzzi's Lead in Marathon

Jacumba, Cal., June 13—Johnny Salo of Passaic, N.J., reduced Peter Gavuzzi's lead in the transcontinental bunion derby to 19 minutes and 56 seconds by winning yesterday's fifty-six-mile lap from the bearded Italian. Salo sliced 15 minutes and 50 seconds from Gavuzzi's elapsed time lead in the stretch between Calexico and Jacumba. His time for the fifty-eight miles was 9:00.05.

Gustavo Umek, Italy, was second in 9:22.50. Gavuzzi pulled in third in 9:44.55. Pat Harrison of Miami, Arizona, was fourth in 11:04.20. Five runners finished in a tie for fifth place: Herbert Hedeman of New York, Phillip Granville of Hamilton, Ont., M. B. McNamara, Australia, Sam Richman, New York, and Paul Simpson, Burlington, N.C., being deadlocked at 11:41.20.

A FINE AVERAGE
The stretch was considered one of the stiffest yet encountered by the coast-to-coast runners, but Salo, in form again, averaged better than six miles an hour for the distance. The runners climbed from the floor of the desert to an elevation of about 3,000 feet. To-day the plodding pilgrims headed for San Diego, seventy-six miles distant, whence they turn northward the following day.

BUICKS WIN CLOSE GAME

Defeat Dodges 17-16 in Garage Baseball League; Fords Play Pimleys To-night

Gaining the odd run in thirty-three, Buicks last night sent the Dodge team to defeat in the Garage Baseball League at the Willows.

The Buicks drove home six runners in the first inning and maintained the lead until the sixth. Dodges, who were fighting hard all the way, caught up to the Buicks at this stage of the game, but lost out when the Buicks knocked out the seventeenth and winning run in the seventh inning.

Battison hurled for the Buicks, while Bridgwood took the mound for the Dodges.

PLAY TO-NIGHT
This evening Fords and Pimleys will meet in a battle to decide the leadership of the league. The game will be played at the Royal Athletic Park commencing at 6:15 o'clock.

So far neither team has tasted defeat and some fair ball is expected when they clash to-night.

"Doc" Todd will pitch for the Fords, while Walter Hall will do the heavy work for Pimleys.

The winner of the Wests-Esquimalt match will go into the next round, along with the winner of the Victoria City-Upper Island game, with six teams from the mainland to compose the eight clubs in the next round.

The Wests and Dockers will both have their strongest teams on the field and a keenly-contested game should be seen.

Preston Eleven Wins Match With Montreal Stars

Stamford Hall, London, June 13.—While both Jack Wright and Willard Crocker of Montreal, Canadian Davis Cup stars, were defeated in the singles of the North London tennis championships just concluded, Wright joined with Miss Helen Jacobs to win the mixed doubles from Godfree and Miss Ryan, 6-4, 3-5, 6-2.

Gledhill Winner In Tennis Play

Berkeley, Cal., June 13.—Keith Gledhill of Santa Barbara went into the fifth day's play of the Pacific Coast tennis championships at the Berkeley Tennis Club. Gledhill eliminated Gordon Jason of the University of Oregon, 6-1, 6-2, in the morning and returned to defeat Kurt Berned, seeded sixth in the draw, in straight sets, 6-1, 6-4.

In the drive for the women's title, Mrs. L. A. Harper disposed of Mrs. Winifred Ottin, 6-4, 6-2, after a stiff, uphill battle.

"CHUCK" HUNTER TO TOUR EAST

Will Be Accompanied By Don Moe and Compete in U.S. Intercollegiate Tourney

Seattle, June 13—Chuck Hunter, University of Washington holder of the B.C. amateur golf championship, and Don Moe, University of Oregon, will leave next Saturday morning on a transcontinental trip which will end in Deal, N.J., where the two young sectional golfers will compete in the United States intercollegiate golf tournament, June 24 to 28. Moe holds the Pacific Coast Conference golf title, while Hunter was runner-up in the recent tournament held here.

Hunter announced that he and Moe on the return trip would stop off at Kansas City, Mo., to take part in the Western Amateur play, July 6.

This will be Hunter's third year at the eastern matches. In 1927 he represented Washington as a sophomore and went into the semi-finals. Last year he entered the tournament held at Rye, N.M., one of the favorites to carry off top honors, but stumbled in the opening round.

A DIFFICULT PATH
To win this year, Hunter has one of the most difficult paths to climb he has ever attempted. Since Moe holds a win over him, he must pass the youthful Oregon whiz, which in itself is considered a man's hard task.

Moe has been playing sensational golf this season and should enter the meet as one of the favorites to win. He demonstrated outstanding ability in coping the Coast intercollegiate title.

Hunter and Moe who will represent the Far West will travel together on the long trip. The two collegians are fraternity brothers, being members of the Beta Theta Pi.

Hunter said that he expects to return to Seattle the middle of June.

Widener, president of the association, made the announcement that it would be scrapped and that the new Mars Cassidy starting gate would be given a tryout at Saratoga.

The failure of the electric system to work on the closing day of the Belmont meeting caused a serious accident to Jockey Eddie Watters.

Marathon Is Won By Billy Taylor

Gloucester, N.S., June 13.—Billy Taylor of Sydney won the ten-mile race stage at the Black Diamond race track last night, running a fast field of competitors into the ground in twenty laps around the oval. While Ward finished in 58 minutes 20 seconds.

German Will Have To Box Always to Win From Paolino

Georges Carpentier, Former French Heavyweight Champion, Declares Max Schmeling Leaves Himself Wide Open and Is Easy to Hit; Will Have to Keep Away From Hard Punches of Spaniard; Frenchman Likes German's Speed and Hitting Ability.

Lakewood, N.J., June 13—Georges Carpentier, trim and lean as that sultry July day in 1921 when a heavyweight crown trembled for a moment under the crash of his fists, stood on the outside of a training ring looking in.

The orchid man of France rubbed his chin caressingly against the top rope and stared at the labors of a husky youth, whom the knowing speak of carelessly as "another Dempsey."

NEW THREAT APPEARS FOR TRACK TITLE

Prometheus By Performance at Aqueduct May Lift Juvenile Championship

"Pony" McAtee Rides Morsun to Win in Rockaway Stakes; Justina a Winner

New York, June 13.—Turf experts who have been ready to hand the juvenile championship to Harry Payne Whitney's Boojum on a plateau may have to alter their decision if Prometheus, another bearer of the light blue colors continues to perform in the fashion he exhibited at Aqueduct yesterday.

Pitted against thirteen classy two-year-olds in a five-furlong sprint this son of Broomstick showed his heels in a field in a manner that showed his victory in the juvenile at Belmont Park was no fluke. Included in his list of victims was the Hancoccs stable's pride, Grattan, and the speedy son of High Time from the Fair stable, Sarazen II.

Grattan finished second and Sarazen II third in the race, which Prometheus won in 1:3-5.

Sonny Workman was in the saddle. Benjamin Block's colt Morsun, showing the same kind of form which carried him to a great two-year-old last season, captured the Rockaway claiming stakes, which featured the second day of racing at the Long Island track. With Linus "Pony" McAtee astride, the son of Morsun raced over the six furlongs in 1:13-5 to defeat a field of eight and earn $3,825 for his owner.

Harry Payne Whitney's three-year-old son of Broomstick, Coats, staged a great stretch drive to take down second, only three parts of a length back of Morsun. W. M. Moore's Stretcher was third. Extreme, the seven-year-old star sprinter from the Dorwood barn, back in the plater ranks after an absence of two years, never was a threat.

A SURPRISE WIN
The Serenta farm's George McCann accounted for the Cincinnati Rotary purse at Latonia much to the surprise of the handicappers. As the result George McCann's only enriched his owner $1,000, but paid his backers $29.14 for a $2 mutual ticket.

Lord Breadalbane from the Breckinridge string was bled, why a nose for second, while third went to R. S. Clark's Lion Heart. Away slowly, the Serenta Farm entry raced under slight restraint until the far turn. There he was brought over to the extreme outside and slowly wore down the leaders in the stretch, winning in the final strides.

Veteran runners had their day at Washington Park as four horses fought it out for the White City purse and $1,150, over the mile and seventy yards route.

Mrs. E. Denemark's Blackwood triumphed with four lengths to spare, with second going to King Nadi from the Uns and Barlewein stable. J. J. Greeley's Devon was third. Wacker Drive, the other starter, never was in the race.

The Carleton Purse at five and one-half furlongs at Fairmount Park found only six juveniles facing the barrier, but it was a real horse race. J. W. Marchbank's Justina won out with C. Morris's Ultimate Vote second, and Wood River, flying E. F. Pritchard's colors, third.

Justina covered the distance in 1:08-2-5.

U.S. Stars Win Their Matches In Dutch Tournament

Noordwyk, Holland, June 13.—"Big Bill" Tilden, Francis Hunter and Junior Coen of the United States, through their matches in the Dutch tennis championship yesterday, Hunter defeated Daniel Nielsen, 6-2, 6-3, 6-2, and Coen disposed of Karnebeek of Holland, 5-3, 6-4, 6-0.

Tilden still has to meet the young French Davis Cup reserve, Pierre Landry, before he can reach the last eight.

"Big Bill's" matches yesterday were in the men's doubles paired with Hunter, and in the mixed doubles with Kea Bouman, the Dutch woman's champion. The U.S. partners beat the Dutch team of Feith and Eilers, 6-2, 6-3, 6-2.

With Miss Bouman he defeated the Hungarian, Kirchmayer, and Mrs. Baltrock, 6-2, 6-2, 6-3.

Coen and his partner, Hans Timmer of Holland eliminated a pair of old-timers in the doubles. They beat Paterson, captain of the Egyptian Davis Cup team, and Brosse Van Groenou, president of the Dutch Tennis Association, 6-3, 6-2, 6-3.

BAKER MAY BE REINSTATED BY B.C. BODY

The Victoria board of the British Columbia branch of the A.A.U. of Canada decided the hold over the application made by Roy Baker, local boxer, for reinstatement as an amateur until the annual meeting of the provincial body here next month, during its party last night. Baker, it seems, fought on a professional card some time ago and automatically suspended himself.

OLD COUNTRY CRICKET.

London, June 13.—A great innings by Sandham, professional for Surrey, and spectacular bowling by Alton and A. Geary, of this club, were bright spots in an otherwise drab first-class cricket programme yesterday. Rain was reported from most parts of England and cricket suffered as a consequence. Sandham scored 187 runs against Glamorgan, while Alton captured five wickets for 14 runs and Geary five wickets for 22. Glamorgan were dismissed in their first innings for 37 runs, which is the low-water mark for scoring so far this season. Scores yesterday were:

Glamorgan, 37; Surrey, 295 for six wickets.

Yorkshire, 193 for five wickets (Pomes 101, not out). Rain; Northampton not batting.

Sussex vs. Essex: Sussex, 187 for six wickets (Bowlby 100).

Kent vs. Leicestershire, at Tonbridge Wells: Kent, 187 (Geary seven wickets for 56); Leicestershire, 96 for eight wickets.

Minor Counties vs. South Africa, at Stoke: Minor Counties, 169 for six wickets (Hon. D. Rannant 62); rain.

Gloucestershire vs. Cambridge University: No play; rain.

Pirates Turn Back "No Hit" Hubbell to Gain League Lead

Gain Revenge for Shut-out Handed Them in New York Several Weeks Ago; Score Winning Runs in Ninth With Two Away; St. Louis Cardinals Are Idle; Philadelphia Improves Standing in American by Defeating White Sox as St. Louis Browns Turn on Yankees; Washington Loses to Cleveland.

The Pittsburgh Pirates' charge remains unchecked, even with the New York Giants opposing it. John J. McGraw was forced to chafe in the New York dugout at Forbes Field yesterday as the Pirates gave him charges a one-run defeat in the ninth after Burleigh Grimes had blown a fine early lead. The Buccaneers drove four hard smashes back at the venerable Jack Seitz to score two runs after two were out and so to win by 7-6.

With the St. Louis Cardinals held motionless by rain, the Pirates thus were able to eradicate that theoretical half-game deficit under which they had labored while leading the league champions in percentage. Donie Bush's men are now in one of those famous "virtual ties" with the Redbirds, but holding a percentage through the noted process of having lost fewer games.

The Pirates got extremely even with Carl (No-Hit) Hubbell, who so embarrassed them at the Polo Grounds without a safety. Eight hits and four runs sent Master Hubbell showerward at the end of three innings, and Burleigh Grimes seemed to hit a breeze for his seventh straight. After a six-inning blowup, netting the Giants five runs, however, he was in danger of acquiring his first defeat until Grimes' single and Ott's fumble enabled Traynor to score from first base with the winning run in the ninth.

CUBS WIN
The Chicago Cubs defeated the Phillies by 7-3 in Chicago as the Brooklyn Robins and the Reds lay idle in a Cincinnati rainstorm. Malone fanned twelve Phillies, running his mark to 58, the best in the league.

Action on the American League front further improved the standing of the Philadelphia Athletics who exacted more toll from the hapless Chicago White Sox as the St. Louis Browns turned upon the New York Yankees after three straight rebuffs.

This combination of events increased the lead of the Mackmen to eight games. Connie Mack employed Rube Walberg to clinch his third triumph over the White Sox. Rube took the game in his stride and won by 7-3, aided by Al Simmons' fourteenth home run.

The defeat of the Yankees may be attributed in part to Miller Huggins' daring in exposing Myles Thomas to enemy fire in a starting role. Myles escaped with his life for two rounds, but the Browns conquered him in the third, when seven hits netted eight runs, and the ball game which eventually was won by 9-4.

Fred Helmsch rushed to Thomas' rescue just in time to see George Blaeholder, the St. Louis pitcher, cap the assault with a homer with two Brownies aboard. Blaeholder held the champion to eight hits all told, but permitted Lou Gehrig to register his thirteenth home run in the eighth.

PITCHERS FALTER
Washington pitching again faltered at the capital yesterday, and Cleveland defeated the home team 9-8. Willis Hudlin also had his troubles, but Joe Shaute rescued him in time. The Indians hammered away impartially at the Messrs. Ball and Brown. The Boston Red Sox and Detroit Tigers enjoyed an open date.

Sammy Mandell Signs Contract To Defend Title

Chicago, June 13.—Sammy Mandell, world's lightweight boxing champion, signed a contract with Paddy Harmon, president of the Chicago Stadium Corporation, to defend his title against a suitable opponent before August 10. Mandell received a bonus of $5,000 for signing. The contract also stipulates that Mandell shall defend his title a second time in the event he emerges victor in the coming bout. Tony Canzoneri, former world featherweight champion, is prominently mentioned as Mandell's opponent.

Golf Goat Getters

By VERNE WICKHAM

This shows what happens to the terribly nervous golfer when his partner suddenly wakes up and howls: "Sorry, Tom, it is my first putt, isn't it?"

The two golfers had walked onto the green at the same time and both balls were on the green. Tom knew that his partner's ball was the farthest from the cup and should be putted first. The foursome back on the fairway was anxious to shoot up. As Tom's partner was watching the fleecy clouds roll by, Tom, to give time, took his putting stance and had the club at the top of the back swing when his partner woke up and stopped him with a suddenness that kept his nerves on edge for the rest of the round.

When you get on the green, size up the balls at once and be ready to putt if it is your ball away.

The rule is simple for play from tee to green. It reads: "When the balls are in play, the ball farthest from the hole shall be played first. Through the green, or in a hazard, if a player plays when his opponent should have played, the opponent may at once recall the stroke. A ball so recalled shall be dropped as near as possible to the place where it lay, without penalty."

The closer to the pin you get the more important the question of honor becomes, and on the green it is a thing to watch closely.

Putt in turn!

WELSH TEAM SHOWS CLASS TO WIN 10-1

Gives Splendid Performance of Passing and Speed and Swamps Calgary

Jones Scored Three Goals For Tourists; Led 5-0 at Rest Period

Calgary, June 13.—Wales' famous touring soccer team swamped the Calgary All-Stars by a count of 10-1 before the season's greatest soccer crowd, numbering nearly five thousand, at Hillhurst Park, Wednesday evening. The tourists opened the scoring and piled up a lead of five goals in the first half.

They came back and added four more goals in the second half before Calgary got their lone counter. Another goal in the last minutes made the score 10-1 for the visitors.

The Welsh goals were scored by Neill (2), Davies (2), Jones (3), Warren and Vivard (1 each). Patterson scored the other one when he kicked into his own goal.

Favored with ideal weather, the Welshmen were at their best in dishing up such a bewildering brand of soccer that they had their opponents hopeless most of the time. Their passing was accurate, while they displayed a world of speed in their attacking movements. Their shooting wasn't of the best, otherwise they would have scored many more goals, as they passed up many chances.

The game proved an education to both players and spectators and did much for the benefit of soccer in this city.

The teams: Welsh—Gray; Russell, Lumberg; Bennion, Kennor, Jennings; Warren, Neale, Davis, Jones and Vivard.

Calgary—Pinnell; Crooks, Patterson; Austin, Robert, Pate; Mathieson, Cartwright, Smith, Blair and Tucker.

DEATH DECLARED
CAUSED BY FALL

At His Trial in Winnipeg C. W. Agnew Tells of Last Moments of Mrs. Elizabeth McLean

Winnipeg, June 13.—Giving evidence in a crowded courtroom at his own trial, Cyril W. Agnew yesterday stated Mrs. Elizabeth McLean, on a charge of murdering whom he is being tried, fell down the stairs, from the sixth to the fifth floor, in the Canada Building here in the early morning of March 3 last. Both she and Agnew had been drinking in his office on the sixth floor, he admitted. When he found Mrs. McLean at the bottom of the stairs, he brought her step by step back to his office, he said. She was breathing when he brought her back to his office, Agnew told the jury, and then he fell asleep and when he woke up the woman was dead.

DECLARED EXCITED

Telling of Mrs. McLean's visit to his office, Agnew declared she had become excited over the fact that she thought he was paying more attention to another woman than to herself and claimed it was because of her lack of good clothes. Then Mrs. McLean started to tear off her clothes and rip them into bits, Agnew stated. Finally, quieting her, Agnew induced her to go home, and she expressed a wish to go to the women's wash room on the fifth floor of the building to wash.

She went downstairs and when she did not return for some time Agnew started after her. At the bottom of the flight of stairs he stumbled over her in the dark, he testified. He bent over and heard Mrs. McLean murmuring something to him, but he could not understand. He then dragged her back upstairs to his office.

MANY BRUISES

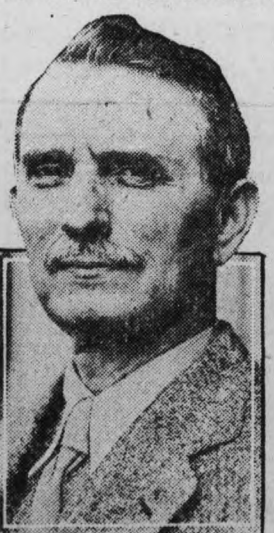

Dr. John A. Gunn and Dr. R. M. Simpson, called in after Mrs. McLean's death, were both of the opinion when questioned yesterday that the woman had come to her death by a fall, but neither could account for the many bruises and injuries on the body. A fracture of the neck caused death, they testified.

Glove Care
With the advent of longer gloves with new frocks, glove care assumes importance. Never roll used gloves into a ball. Smooth out fingers, and blow air into them and fold carefully.
Do not pull gloves off or on by the cuffs. Never put them away damp from rain or perspiration. When washing them, use soap flakes and add a little glycerine.
A total capital of almost $50,000.000
was involved in the motion picture industry in Great Britain during 1928.

BRAIN RULES
LIFE'S LENGTH,
SAYS MADAME
Akron, Ohio, June 13—An active brain makes for a happy old age, believes Madame Charlotte de Collere Davenport, recently turned 104.
"You must keep your brain active," she says. "When the brain becomes fagged and useless we soon die."
The old lady appears middle aged despite her 104 years, and in her mind she has vividly pictured historical events of the past seventy or eighty years. She is the mother of eleven children, the oldest of whom is past eighty-six.
"I use my brain and keep it active even though my heart is probably wearing out," she continues. "Keep busy and you will live because you have something to live for."
Madame Davenport is at present married to a Washington newspaperman, himself fifty-six years old. It is her second matrimonial venture.

Superstition, But Not Science, Has Many
Cures For Baldness
BY DR. MORRIS FISHER
Experts say that in most instances baldness is idiopathic — which means that nobody knows the reason for it.
There are all sorts of superstitions about the hair as about every other matter in which scientific knowledge still is lacking. Some people believe that the hair is full of sap and that the ends must be sealed by singeing or the sap will run out. The hair has no more sap than a buggy-whip. In most instances baldness is hereditary and because of the constitutional condition the hair is bound to fall out.
Some people think that hair grows on parts of the body that need protection, at least from wind and weather. There may have been a time when hair on the chest was useful for this purpose. Nowadays women without hair on the chest keep the chest regularly exposed and when with a heavy growth of hair on the chest wear a vest, coat, shirt, overcoat and various quantities of underwear to protect the chest still further.
Another theory has it that hair remains on those portions of the body that were not reached by sunlight in that evolutionary stage when men walked on all fours. There seems to be plenty of evidence that sunlight is both good and bad for the hair. The evidence seems to depend on the dosage used and the head of the particular person concerned.
The promoters of cures for baldness that involve use of the artificial sun's rays, or ultraviolet rays, say that this method will cure baldness and even cause a new growth of hair even on balding shiny as a billiard ball. Where,

Keep Cook Cool By Making
Summer Time Salad Time

By SISTER MARY
There is no time of the year when hearty salads are as welcome as during the summer months. On a hot noon we are decidedly grateful for the cooling freshness of both the looks and taste of a salad that furnishes our needed calories as well as mineral salts and vitamins.
The cook will find it much easier to serve her main dish as a salad than in some other form. She can keep her kitchen cool during the heat of the day since no fire is needed for prolonged cooking. The salad materials are most attractive used whole. They should be cooked until just tender in as little water as possible.
A GOOD SALAD INGREDIENT
If you have never used string beans in salad combinations you have overlooked one of the best vegetables for salads. They don't lose their shape and become "mushy" as some vegetables do and they combine particularly well with meat. The young, early varieties are most attractive used whole. They should be cooked until
just tender in as little water as possible.
The following salad can be varied in many ways. Match-like pieces of veal and carrots can be substituted for beans and tongue suggested in the recipe.

SUMMER SALAD
One and one-half cups cold cooked string beans, 1 cup cold cooked
ham, 1 cup cold cooked tongue,
Bermuda onion, green pepper.
Cut ham and tongue in pieces
the same size as the beans. Mix and add 2 tablespoons vinegar and 4 tablespoons salad oil beaten with 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/2 teaspoon pepper. Cover and let stand in refrigerator for an hour or longer.
When ready to serve drain from dressing and arrange each individ-

NAMING CREWS
FOR N.P.A.A.O.
REGATTA HERE
Senior Singles, Doubles, 140-
Pound Fours and Juniors
Tentatively Chosen
J.B.A.A. Oarsmen Rounding
Into Shape For Big Meet;
Chances Considered Good

With the N.P.A.A.O. regatta less than six weeks distant, J.B.A.A.
crews are rapidly rounding into shape. Junior fours, 140-pound fours, senior and junior singles and senior doubles boats have been tentatively chosen and the oarsmen are working out regularly at the club quarters at the Gorge.
Dan Moses, well-known local sculler, will in all probability represent the J.B.A.A. in the senior singles, while Charlie Newman is considered the most likely possibility for the junior boat.
CRANE AND WALLS TO ROW
Jack Crane and Aubrey Walls, two members of last year's 140-pound shell, will again row in this division along with Smith and Scott.
Bert Willis, husky Britisher, who came to this city at the beginning of the season, is expected to stroke the junior fours. Brian Hunnings will row three, Heron two and Jack Miller bow.
Ray Ditchburn and Dan Moses will try to uphold the honors won by Clyde Donaldson and Art Speed in the Portland meet last year. These boys were the only local oarsmen to win their event at Portland, taking the senior doubles from a fast field.
During the 1928 summer, Ditchburn was rowing a close second to Speed and should be able to equal him in the double this year. Dan Moses is considered one of the mainstays of the local club and will doubtless give a good account of himself in the coming meet.
NOT SELECTED
The senior fours and junior doubles have not yet been selected. In several fast men are trying for places in these boats.
Coach Dan O'Sullivan says he has three or four promising junior fours that might be sent into the senior event. At present they are practicing at the Gorge and are showing up fairly well. Within the next three weeks the coach will select the strongest crew among these and spend the remainder of the time training the boys for the senior event.
GOOD CHANCE
Coach O'Sullivan believes the local oarsmen have an equal break with any club entering the meet. He expects the crews to be better than the senior club last year and hopes to see the J.B.A.A. colors finish in front in several events.
In some of the junior races two or more local entries may compete, he said.
Although the crews he mentioned had made the best showings during the season, they were by no means definite. Mr. O'Sullivan added, saying that they would all have to work hard to keep their places.

The World Famous
"Ounce of Prevention"

A dash of ENO in a glass of water daily.

Intestinal poisoning from absorption is the cause of many ills. It yields and succumbs to ENO'S "Fruit Salt" because ENO so surely, but ever so gently and safely, eliminates the poisonous waste matter that causes it.

Thus does the simple daily dash of ENO'S "Fruit Salt" become the "ounce of prevention" that forestalls any necessity for the more drastic measures.

To gain a new zest for life and its duties, test ENO for yourself... just a dash in a glass of water every morning for a few days.

But remember, there is only one ENO. Resolutely refuse substitutes; then you will know that you have the safe, dependable, non-habit-forming health beverage.

MACDONALD IS GIVEN WELCOME IN HOME TOWN

People of Lossiemouth, Scotland, Greet New British Premier on Holiday

Lossiemouth, Scotland, June 13.—The fisherfolk and townspeople of this village gave a great welcome to Rt. Hon. Ramsay MacDonald, their fellow townsman, who for the second time in Prime Minister of the United Kingdom. The rejoicings culminated last night with a giant bonfire on top of a great sand dune on the shore. This was followed by dancing in the two biggest halls of the town which was kept up until the wee sma' hours.

The Premier and his daughter, Isabel, watched the shore celebration from the veranda of their house. A long procession of school children, fishwives and all the fishermen who were not at sea, headed by a band of pipers, halted in front of the MacDonald home while the Premier made a short speech thanking the folks for their affectionate welcome.

Provost Cormick, clad in robes of his fellow townspeople and said: "May your name go down to posterity as the great Prime Minister who made peace among nations possible."

In reply Mr. MacDonald said his heart was so full it was difficult to fashion words and phrases.

"I come to find from your surroundings and companionship that rest and peace which you have never denied me from the day of my birth," he said.

"Good old Donal!" came the cry. "Donal!" being the name by which Mr. MacDonald was known as a boy.

"Those words," said Mr. MacDonald, "recall many years that have gone. Those years are full of the richest and most precious memories. Those memories one can revive here."

FISH RULES UNDER GLARE AT NANAIMO

Board of Trade Representatives Seek Changes in Regulations
Recommendations For Conference Here in July Drawn Up at Meeting

Nanaimo, June 13.—Representatives of boards of trade from all over Vancouver Island gathered here yesterday to discuss the question of game fishing on Vancouver Island. After a lengthy conference in which several angles of the matter were thrashed out, a programme of recommendations was drawn up for presentation at the conference of the Associated Boards of Trade of Vancouver Island to be held in Victoria July 11.

Major R. G. Monteith, Capt. W. E. Tapley, H. D. Patterson and J. L. Beckwith were among the delegates present from Victoria and advanced suggestions along several lines.

Following is a list of recommendations agreed upon for submission to the Victoria conference:

Establishment of new dates for the closed seasons on steelhead trout and lake trout.

Redefining of the Crofton sea area, Chemainus Bay, for the purpose of excluding seine and other commercial fishermen and preserving the ground for sport and fish conservation.

Establishment of a rearing and nursery pond at the Cowichan Lake hatcheries.

Increase of the fish officers in the Cowichan district.

That the Department of Fisheries be asked to experiment with brown trout in the Cowichan River.

That the length of fish which could be legally caught be made ten inches instead of eight.

That Merganser ducks be systematically destroyed just before the nesting season.

And a revision of new regulations governing grilse fishing to allow greater catches.

GRILSE FISHING

Victoria delegates manifested considerable interest in grilse fishing.

Mr. Patterson felt that the regulations should define exactly what a grilse was and moreover the limit of catch should be raised. A weight of two and one-half pounds, with the head intact, should constitute a grilse, he maintained.

Major L. T. Ratary, of Duncan, the chairman, and Mr. Beckwith also joined in the discussion and it was finally decided to recommend that the catch be ten grilse to a man, five salmon of different types and twenty to one boat.

Discussing the recommendations that the closed season on steelhead trout be from March 1 to December 16, Major Monteith pointed out that steelhead on the east coast of the Island started to spawn after March 1 and were no good. Many steelhead caught around that time were found ready to spawn and the stock was thus depleted.

The motion was endorsed with the amendment that the season cover the entire coast.

CLOSED SEASON

The closed season on lake trout should be from October 15 to March 25, it will be recommended. Capt. Tapley wished March 20 as the opening date but it was pointed out that the early opening date on trout was causing a rapid decrease in the stock.

Throughout the conference, the general feeling was for preservation of fish stock and it was with this idea in view that the resolution seeking the redefining of the Crofton sea area was adopted.

The closing of the entire Bay to commercial fishermen was recommended despite protests of J. M. Ridd, of Nanaimo, who claimed such a ruling would injure the Nanaimo fish cannery business.

Premier Bracken Thanks the Federal Government For Transfer Settlement

Winnipeg, June 13.—"The report of the Royal Commission on Natural Resources should be very gratifying to all those who have interested themselves in this long-drawn-out question," said Hon. John Bracken, Premier of Manitoba, in commenting on the report of the commissioners tabled in the House of Commons yesterday.

"The recommendations of the commission speak for themselves," added

ROTARY HEAD

M. Eugene Newson of Durham, N.C., is the new president of Rotary International.

Mr. Bracken. "The terms of settlement proposed, while less generous than we had hoped, are much more satisfactory than most people anticipated."

Mr. Bracken, on behalf of the Manitoba Government, expressed thanks to Premier King, the other members of the Federal Cabinet and the commissioners for their assistance and co-operation in investigating and reporting on the settlement for the province.

TERMS LISTED

Ottawa, June 13.—The report of the Royal Commission on the Transfer of Natural Resources to the Province of Manitoba, tabled in the House of Commons last night by Premier King, recommends:

1. The payment in cash by the Dominion to Manitoba of $4,584,212.40 as the balance due for arrears.

2. The payment to Manitoba of $562,500 annually from now until the population of the province reaches 800,000.

3. Increase in this annual payment to $750,000 when the population reaches 800,000.

4. Finally, when the population reaches 1,200,000, an increase in the amount to $1,125,000, that amount to remain unchanged thereafter.

The report is a pamphlet of forty-six pages, signed by Mr. Justice W. F. A. Turgeon, chairman of the commission, and by Hon. T. A. C. C. M. Bowman, the other two commissioners.

CLAIMS BALANCED

It says in part: "In arriving at the amount of the subsidies we have given due weight, we think, to whatever can fairly be credited to the Dominion as against the claim of the Provincial Government. We are placing an appraisal on the loss to the Provincial Government in respect to Provincial lands, we are allowing the Dominion the benefit of lands used to subsidize branch-line construction, and are holding to its credit the sums paid by it to the Province under the legislation of 1898 and of 1912 to aid in the construction of public buildings. We also recognize, in favor of the Dominion, the further fact that the subsidies we are recommending for future years are generous in their terms. We are giving effect to these considerations in favor of the Dominion in two ways (1), by fixing a moderate figure for the subsidies payable in respect of past years, and (2), by disallowing all claims of interest upon arrears, and, of course, we are setting off, against the sum now due for back subsidies, all subsidies already paid under earlier arrangements, as well as the value of the swamp lands and the university lands granted under the legislation of 1885."

The curvature of the earth amounts to seven inches per mile.

"LOVE IS OF THE VALLEY"

By DAVID LYALL

"It was to find a secret route which enabled us to cut off the Turks, that was all; but don't let us talk about the war."

"There isn't anything else," said Beatrice. Her grave voice slightly vibrant with passion. "How is one to get away from it? Do you like to find your home full of its ghastly evidence?"

Brodie did not answer. They began to move away from the shade of the new hedges out into the pale sunlight which was veering rapidly towards the rim of the western sky.

"Don't go back yet," said Brodie when she would have headed directly for the front of the house. She cast on him a slightly startled glance, then something mute in her eyes indicated that she would follow his lead.

They turned their faces westward towards the thick belt of wood which clustered about the base of the hill and gave the house adequate and beautiful shelter.

"It is two years and a half since I walked in the woods before Linnorine woods in spring was one of the visions that tormented men like me in the desert," said Brodie.

"They are beautiful even now," Beatrice answered softly. "Look at that flame of the beech between the sombre yews. There is no coloring like nature's, yet, when men paint it as they see it, the world calls them mad."

"The world has labels for the inner sense, but a few labels never hurt either a person or a cause," he observed in a musing voice.

"You think not?" she asked wistfully. "There is such a lot of foolish talk in the world. Sometimes it is worse than foolish, and has an edge of spite."

"That is so, but it can't effect the ultimate issue," Beatrice asserted. "It kept America out of the war, and in its individual lives it has often seen its effect."

"And suffered from it?" he asked gently compelling, imagining some bitterness in her voice.

"Only a little. What I am afraid of," she added with a little shiver, "is that I have made others suffer."

"Never willingly," he hastened to assure her. "We all make mistakes. That is human. It is the way we handle our mistakes that proves the mettle of the pasture."

She listened with a quickened breathing and after a moment, as the shadows of the wood were about to enfold them, she said:

"I have been taking care of the people you were interested in, the old Miss Kinloch is dead. The other seems to have grown younger with the war. She is taking care of a hostel for girl munitioners. Could you believe anything you tell me?"

"I could believe anything you tell me," he said involuntarily. "I made a point of visiting them every week on a certain day. They got to look for it, but I think I ought to tell you that though they were glad to see me, they never failed to convey that I was only a substitute for you."

Brodie laughed at that, and she, answering to his amusement, smiled too.

"Sometimes it hurt my pride, and that was a good thing," she said, and proceeded to tell him about the other victims of the Trust towards whom she had felt a personal responsibility.

"Of course, I always knew you were doing this, though I had no written or personal proof," he said suddenly. "Did you? But how could you know it?"

"Because you said you would, and that with some is enough. A word is as good as a thousand bonds."

"Great was your faith, and I don't know how or where you justified it," she said, and then had to pass in front of him on the narrow path strewn inches deep in pine needles, which brought them to the little bridge crossing the Linnorine water. It was rather dry now, for there had not been much rain, even the Linnorine floods had been of the most meagre description.

A low parapet, lichen-covered, protected the sides, and somehow they paused there and Beatrice sat down on it. The shafts of golden light still lingering in the west penetrated in places through the thick shades of the wood, casting an indescribable and soft radiance about them. The silence was profound, broken only by the soft cooing of a wood pigeon somewhere in the thicket. Beatrice had no desire to break that silence, nor was she the least self-conscious, though she knew that irrevocable words were coming, and that her heart was waiting for them, a chamber swept and garnished for their music.

"If you knew what it is for me to find you here," he said at last, "the nearer I came to home the more my heart seemed to be at rest. It was because you were here, and I not knowing it, except like that."

Suddenly she lifted her large eyes to his face and spoke impulsively. "If you feel like that, why did you not reply to the little, humble letter, I sent to you before you left Scotland last time?"

"I got no letter," he answered steadily. "I hoped for it to the last, but none came."

"I wrote and posted it with my own hand," she said, "and then was ashamed, thinking I had cheapened myself."

"That would be impossible. Can I hear what is in it?"

"Oh yes, word for word. They are seared on my brain. But I wonder why it never reached you?"

She paused breathless, and then as he waited spoke the written words which through some mysterious cause had failed to reach their destination. They would never learn the cause, other lives have been influenced for good or ill by just such happenings, some failure in the system of distribution, or some carelessness on the part of some official.

"Thank you," he said quietly. "I wish I got it. It would have taken the edge off some unspeakably dreary day for me. But it could not have affected the main issue. Something kept telling me that, so often and so persistently, that at last only peace was left. Do you remember the day we first met in the French salon at George Street?"

"Did she remember? Not yet would she tell him how every word, and look, every vibration of the atmosphere were registered for ever in her heart. When she did not answer he continued:

"Well, I knew that day that nothing could separate us, even death. And now you are here, and if it means anything at all, it means that you are mine."

She put up her hand involuntarily to stay the flood which rose to her face, the glory to her eyes. But because her nature was large and generous, she would give royally, without a question of doubt. So she rose and looked at him steadily.

"I have fought against it. Yes, I knew that day, too, that something different from everything else had come into my life, but I wanted to keep you outside. You see, I had taken a sort of vow against your name."

"I guessed that, but some vows are made to be broken, and the curse of a vow is not a curse," he answered with a curious lightening of the voice.

"I want to tell you," she said, with hand uplifted as if to ward him off for a moment longer, "every prop has been taken. I've been left like the last leaf on the tree, and in the desolate days I kept turning to you. I would have given everything to reach you, yet the pride of which I spoke, and which has been my curse, would not let me, but it is all gone—not an atom left."

Then she flashed on him an adorable look which brought the youth to her face and lent it an indescribable beauty.

"I'm getting old—twenty-eight, and I've never had a lover. All that I have is yours. It is very little, but . . ."

Her voice broke there, and she was folded to his heart, the silence unbroken in the moment of rare and very perfect happiness, even by the wood pigeon in the thicket.

"Do you think the war will last long?" she asked after a time when they could bring their thoughts back to impersonal things.

"At least two years more," he answered without the slightest hesitation. "I shivered against the close clasp of his arm."

"Two years more of blood, and tears, and fear, and all the horrors which attend on base passions. But surely not! What will the world be like, and shall we have any young men left?"

"This generation will suffer, but the price has to be paid," he said. "And will you go out again?"

"Why yes, of course, the moment I am permitted. Now I have my heart's desire I shall get in double-quick time. Happiness is the finest medicine in the world."

"But what about me? How shall I bear it?"

To be continued.

advises twice-a-day use of Palmolive Soap

"Regular cleansing twice a day with Palmolive Soap is my advice to my clients. The effect of the pure palm and olive oils in this soap keeps the skin always in the proper condition."

Spanish beauties have long known the cosmetic value of olive oil. Scientifically blended with palm oils, it has its greatest beauty effect in Palmolive Soap.

SENOR TEJERO of Barcelona always prescribes Palmolive and attributes much of his success to the fact that his clients follow this advice.

"The effect of the pure palm and olive oils in Palmolive Soap is to penetrate gently but deep down into the pores, to remove all accumulations and to soothe and rejuvenate the tissues," he says in recommending this treatment: massage Palmolive Soap and water carefully into the skin. Rinse with both warm water and cold. Only then is your face ready for make-up.

Other international authorities who prefer Palmolive and stress the value of its olive oil content include Cavalieri of Paris; Jacobson of London; Attilio of Rome—hundreds of the leading beauty artists of the world (see upon their advice this very evening. A radiant complexion will be yours.

Chile Soon To Have New Steel Industry

Santiago, Chile—By Mail—While the government has for some time been desirous of promoting the steel industry in Chile and has been studying measures through which to achieve the aim, Congress has just approved a law offering facilities in this direction and authorizing the president to invest 40,000,000 pesos on account of the state treasury in shares of the Compania Electro-Siderurgica de Valdivia, a company being established with a capital of 60,000,000 pesos.

This move is highly praised by the press of the country, as Chile has important iron mines and her water resources place her in an excellent position to produce steel electrically at low cost.

The principal source of iron ore will be the Tofo mines. In addition, Chile can furnish the necessary coal and wood fuel. Corral already has an installation of electric steel furnaces.

Smart Doings of Animals

Mice Use Comrade as a Sled

A friend tells a very interesting story about ingenuity shown by mice. She says that she saw some mice trying to carry off an egg from the nest of a hen. It was not a big one, but it seemed impossible for them to handle it.

Finally the largest of the mice got hold of the egg with all four legs and managed to roll over on his back, holding the plunder tightly to his stomach. The other mice then seized his tail, and using him as a sort of sled, dragged the egg away.

Surveys will be resumed this summer, it is anticipated, with the object of setting aside a park area along the road of the new West Coast Highway. The request of the Federal Government for land adjacent to the highway to be used as a park has been discussed by W. W. Cory, Deputy Minister of the Interior, and J. B. AT THE THEATRES

DIX APPEARS IN HIS FIRST TALKIE AT THE DOMINION

Richard Dix's first all-talking picture, "Nothing But the Truth," is undoubtedly one of his best. And that is saying something, because the handsome young Paramount star has made more than thirty films.

At the Dominion Theatre to-day jubilant audiences looked at and listened to his artistic acting and indicated by their frequent bursts of laughter that they consider him a great favorite of the audible silver-sheet.

"Nothing But the Truth" is that favorite of farce successes revamped for the screen and refurbished with newer and better comedy situations and an adequate trimming of music, singing and dancing.

Dix plays the part of the young man who makes a wager that he can tell nothing but the truth for twenty-four consecutive hours. He wins the bet after going through a veritable circus of bizarre and uproariously amusing situations.

Helen Kane's singing in her famous "baby talk" manner is an agreeable feature of the production. She turns in fine comedy characterization, as do Louis John Bartels, Ned Sparks, Berton Churchill and Wynne Gibson.

STORY OF WILD HORSES THEME OF COLUMBIA FILM

Throughout the history of the west men have gone forth to conquer the stallion leaders of wild horse bands, until at last the supreme animal of them all has been brought to the screen in the person of Rex, King of Wild Horses.

"Guardians of the Wild," is the latest wild horse picture to be released by Universal and is now showing at the Columbia Theatre.

Seldom have so many thrills been packed into one film. Rex, the star, has opened up his bag of tricks which only a wild horse knows and exhibits them all in his latest starring vehicle under the direction of the ace of western directors, Henry MacRae.

The picture, the third of a series of Wild Horse pictures made by Universal with Rex, is from a colorful western story by George Morgan. Beautiful settings and cleverly interpolated humor.

add to it. Expense was no object in its production and every effort was taken to make it one of the finest pictures that has ever been screened from a western story.

Rex is assisted by Starlight, the trained horse belonging to Jack Perrin, who plays the leading human role. Others in the cast are Ethelene Clair, as the pretty heroine, Bob Homans, Al Ferguson and Bernard Siegel.

NERVES GONE CAN'T SLEEP?

"Fruit-a-tives" restores good health

Are you tired? Downcast most of the time? Worried at trifles? Can't sleep? Mr. J. O. Ringheim, Wyndmel, B.C., writes:

"My nerves were completely gone. I owe my present good health to Fruit-a-tives." "Fruit-a-tives" is a combination of intensified fresh fruit juices and the most scientific medicinal ingredients. In a natural, gentle way it stirs lazy liver, bowels and kidneys, into normal, healthy action, soothes the digestive tract, and calms the troubled nerves. 25c or 50c boxes at all druggists (Adv.)

"TOBY" ADDS HUMOR TO COMEDY NOW AT COLISEUM THEATRE

Adding a touch of burlesque to the comedy, "Toby, the Squash Head," Raymond Leitch has held five successive houses in fits of laughter with his humorous antics in the current play at the Coliseum Theatre.

From giving the bride a highly-colored pair of golf hose to wear with her wedding dress to tripping over his own feet, Toby outdoes himself in the type of acting so enjoyed by frequenters of the theatre.

The play hinges about the actions of the Rev. Joe Tucker, a minister, engaged to marry a young woman he has befriended. Unknown to him his half-brother is plotting to do away with the clergyman in order to secure the inheritance. When the young lady's husband, whom she has thought dead, turns up at the end of the story, complications set in, but are finally removed by the murder of the husband. The race track, its followers, vices and humorous situations are portrayed in the film drama, "Silks and Saddles," showing on the screen this week.

MANY STARS OF SCREEN AND STAGE APPEAR IN FILM

There is a reason why Cecil B. De Mille's "King of Kings" which will be shown at the Playhouse Theatre on Monday next, has been called "the picture of pictures." Availing himself of all the magnificent resources and technique of the motion picture art, acquired in the last thirty years, Mr. De Mille has selected the greatest theme of history and is said to have reproduced it in a manner worthy of all praise. Scores of noted screen and stage stars appear in the production. H. B. Warner is seen as Jesus and Rudolph Schildkraut as Calaphas.

ANNUAL FETE HUGE SUCCESS

Hatley Park Attracts Many Visitors; Florence Nightingale Chapter Sponsors Event

Through the generosity of Mrs. James Dunsmuir in loaning her beautiful grounds for the occasion Hatley Park presented an animated scene yesterday afternoon when throngs of visitors from Victoria as well as out-of-town guests, availed themselves of the opportunity of visiting this delightful estate, for the annual garden fete of the Florence Nightingale Chapter, I.O.D.E.

Mrs. William Hyslop was general convener of the fete and tea was in charge of Mrs. Catterall, assisted by Mesdames Baker, Jones, Haugh, Lucas, Sylvester, G. Mellor, Smith, Harrison and Misses Maynard, Catterall and Watson. Tea was served on the lawn below the Italian garden under the trees, and ice cream was served by Mrs. McAllister and Mrs. Lenfesty.

In one of the wistaria-covered bowers in the Japanese garden were home made sweets for sale by Mrs. Fred Hall, Mrs. Gregson and Mrs. McAdam.

Mrs. Lilley was convener of the fortune-telling, assisted by Miss A. B. Cooke, Mrs. A. Smith, Mrs. James Gadsden and Mrs. Gould. Mrs. F. Baylis was in charge of the contest.

An additional attraction was the playing of the regimental band, through the courtesy of the officers of the Fifth Regiment. The largest crowd that has ever attended a fete at the park was in attendance and enjoyed the beauties of the flowers and shrubs, which are now exceptionally beautiful.

Mrs. Litchfield, Mrs. Ernest Eve, Miss Nan Eve and Miss Barton were at the fete.

Mrs. Dunsmuir and Miss Dunsmuir mingled with the visitors, and assisted in making the fete such a success.

REHEARSALS FOR "COQUETTE" LIKE OLD STAGE DAYS

Mary Pickford returned to the days of rehearsals and the learning of lines during the production of "Coquette," which is playing at the Capitol Theatre all this week.

On the bare sound stages, with only skeleton sets for a background, Miss Pickford and her company rehearsed the scenes of her first all-talking picture, an adaptation of the Broadway success, "Coquette."

"I can imagine that I am back in the old stage days," Miss Pickford said, and she paced the uncarpeted boards, studying her lines. "But it is all so new and different. It forms an entirely new technique, this adding of screen mechanics to the ordinary business and action of the stage."

DIRECTOR OF "HOT HEELS" WAS ONCE CAMERAMAN

William Craft, who has been associated as director with Glenn Tryon on three of his starring vehicles, rose to his position via the route of motion picture cameraman. He directed "Hot Heels," the newest Tryon farce, which is at present satisfying crowds at the Playhouse Theatre. Others in the cast are Patsy Ruth Miller, Gretel Yoltz, Tod Sloan, James Bradbury Sr. and Lloyd Whitlock.
